JUSTICE BUILDING

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

The Honorable James G. Exum, Jr., Chief Justice
The Supreme Court of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Chief Justice:

In accord with Section 7A-343 of the North Carolina General Statutes, I herewith transmit the Twentieth Annual Report of the Administrative Office of the Courts, relating to the fiscal year, July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986.

Fiscal year 1985-86 marks the second consecutive year with significant increases in filings and dispositions in both the Superior and District Courts. During 1985-86, as compared to 1984-85, total case filings increased by 6.7% in Superior Court and by 8.7% in District Court; dispositions increased by 4.5% in Superior Court and by 6.3% in District Court. Because the rate of increase in filings was greater than the rate of increase in dispositions, more cases were pending at the end of the fiscal year than were pending at the beginning.

Appreciation is expressed to the many persons who participated in the data reporting, compilation, and writing required to produce this annual report. Within the Administrative Office of the Courts, principal responsibilities were shared by the Research and Planning Division and the Information Services Division. The principal burden of reporting the great mass of trial court data rested upon the offices of the clerks of superior court located in each of the one hundred counties of the State. The Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Clerk of the Court of Appeals provided the case data relating to our appellate courts.

Without the responsible work of many persons across the State this report would not have been possible.

Respectfully submitted,

THE 1985-86 JUDICIAL YEAR IN REVIEW

This Annual Report on the work of North Carolina's Judicial Department is for the fiscal year which began July 1, 1985 and ended June 30, 1986.

The Workload of the Courts

Case filings in the Supreme Court totaled 209 compared with 227 filed during 1984-85. A total of 733 petitions were filed in the Supreme Court, compared with 620 in 1984-85; and 129 petitions were allowed, compared with 111 in 1984-85.

For the Court of Appeals for 1985-86, case filings were 1,381 compared with 1,375 for the 1984-85 year. Petitions filed in 1985-86 totaled 546, compared with 484 during the 1984-85 year.

More detailed data on the appellate courts are included in Part II of this Annual Report.

In the superior courts, case filings (civil and criminal) increased by 6.7% to a total of 91,336 in 1985-86, compared with 85,569 cases in 1984-85. Superior court case dispositions also increased, to a total of 88,089 compared with 84,334 in 1984-85. As case filings during the year exceeded case dispositions, the total number of cases pending at the end of the year increased by 3,247.

Not including juvenile proceedings and mental hospital commitment hearings, the statewide total of district court filings (civil and criminal) during 1985-86 was 1,682,321, an increase of 127,702 (8.2%) from 1984-85 filings of 1,554,619 cases. Much of this increase is attributable to increases in the motor vehicle criminal case category, with 67,174 cases (8.7%) more than the number of motor vehicle criminal cases in 1984-85; the civil magistrate case category, 21,973 cases (10.8%) more than the number of civil magistrate cases in 1984-85; and the general civil case category, 4,899 cases (11.4%) more than the number of general civil cases in 1984-85.

Operations of the superior and district courts are summarized in Part II of this Report, and detailed information on the caseloads in the 100 counties and 34 judicial districts is presented in Part IV.

1986 Legislative Highlights

Constitutional Amendment

The General Assembly approved an amendment for submission to a vote by the people at the November, 1986 General Election. The amendment concerns the time when an election must be held to fill the offices of Supreme Court Justice, Court of Appeals Judge, Superior or District Court Judge, District Attorney, or Clerk of Superior Court after a vacancy in any of these offices has been filled by appointment of the Governor. The proposed constitutional amendment provided that the offices would be filled at the next general election held more than sixty days after the vacancy occurred, rather than thirty days as presently provided. (At the November, 1986 General Election, this proposed amendment to Article IV, Sec. 19 of the State Constitution was approved by the voters.)

District Court Judge Vacancies

G.S. 7A-142, providing that the Governor will fill vacancies on the district court bench by appointment from a list of nominees provided by the district bar, was amended to require the Governor to make such appointments within 60 days after the bar submits nominations. The amended statute also provides that if a district bar had submitted nominations for a vacancy before the new law became effective, the Governor must make those appointments within 60 days from the effective date of the act. The act became effective on July 14, 1986.

Superior Court Elections

Chapter 957, 1986 Session Laws, effective July 9, 1986, amended G.S. 163-106(d) to eliminate the numbered-seat system for election of superior court judges.

A further statutory amendment provided that when two superior court seats with terms of different lengths in the same district must be filled at the same election, the full terms and expired terms are treated as different offices, and candidates may file for only one of the offices (Chapter 986, 1986 Session Laws); but if Chapter 986 is not pre-cleared under section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, then in elections in which seats are unnumbered, candidates with the most votes get the longer terms (Chapter 987, 1986 Session Laws). (Note: Chapter 986 has been pre-cleared.)

Salaries

The General Assembly provided for salary increases for all officials and employees of the judicial department. Chapter 1014, 1986 Session Laws, specifically sets out the salaries of justices and judges, district attorneys, public defenders, clerks and assistant and deputy clerks of superior court, and magistrates. The salaries of assistant district attorneys and assistant public defenders are to be established by district attorneys and public defenders respectively, subject to the statutory average salary limits and to the approval of the Administrative Officer of the Courts. Permanent employees of the judicial department not listed in Chapter 1014 received an across-the-board increase of $900 and are eligible for merit increases if they have been employed by the state for two or more years.

When a senior regular resident superior court judge becomes unable to perform his duties because of mental or physical incapacity, and another judge is appointed as a replacement on a temporary basis under G.S. 7A-41, Chapter 1014, Section 33 provides that the replacement judge will receive the increased salary normally paid to a senior regular resident superior court judge, and the judge whom he replaces will receive the salary of a superior court judge.

Chapter 1014, Section 223 also amended G.S. 7A-171.1(a) to add a new section providing that a magistrate with specified experience as a law enforcement officer or assistant or deputy clerk may be employed at a starting salary equivalent to that received by a magistrate with five-to-seven years' experience. This amendment applies only to magistrates initially appointed on or after July 1, 1986.

Finally, Section 224 of Chapter 1014 provides that "service" for the purpose of computation of longevity pay for a district attorney includes periods of employment as an assistant district attorney.

New Positions

Funding was allocated to support a previously authorized district court judgeship in the 10th Judicial District. Funding was also appropriated for the following additional positions in the judicial department: six assistant public defenders, seven magistrates, one paralegal and one secretary for a public defender's office, seven secretaries for district court judges, and twenty-one deputy clerks.

Child Support

In response to changes in federal law, the General Assembly passed three acts designed to improve child support collection procedures.

Expedited Procedures: Chapter 993, 1986 Session Laws, requires district court judges to dispose of child support claims within 60 days unless certain exceptions apply. Judicial districts which do not meet this time standard are subject to a federal requirement for establishment of expedited procedures as a condition to receiving federal funds, and the act sets forth expedited child support procedures to apply in such districts. Under these procedures, either a magistrate or the clerk of superior court (as designated by the chief district court judge, the Administrative Officer of the Courts, and the clerk) will initially hear and decide both child support claims and efforts to enforce child support orders. Parties may appeal the magistrate's or clerk's decision to a district court judge, who conducts a new hearing. In child support cases involving disputes over custody, visitation, or other complex issues, however, the clerk or magistrate issues only a temporary support order. The case is then transferred to district court and given priority over other district court cases.

Income Withholding: Chapter 949, 1986 Session Laws, establishes procedures for withholding wages and other incomes when a person under court order to pay child support is one month or more in arrearage. In IV-D cases, a district court hearing is required only if the obligated parent requests a hearing and was unable to resolve the issue by agreement. In non-IV-D cases, withholding must be initiated by district court order, but in all cases the act limits the grounds on which the judge may find that withholding should not be ordered.

Child Support Guidelines: The General Assembly directed the Conference of Chief District Court Judges to establish advisory guidelines for judges to use in computing child support amounts (Chapter 1016, 1986 Session Laws) (effective October 1, 1987).

Victim and Witness Assistance

An act was passed to provide at least one "victim and witness assistant" to each of the 35 district attorney offices (Chapter 998, 1986 Session Laws). The act establishes specific rights and services for crime victims and witnesses in criminal cases. Victim and witness assistants will be responsible for coordinating services provided by law enforcement and judicial systems. Such services include securing prompt return of property and providing information about scheduled proceedings, medical assistance, physical protection, witness fees, dispositions, and parole or other proceedings that may result in release from custody of certain felons. The Conference of District Attorneys is to assist in implementing and supervising the program, and, along with the Administrative Officer of the Courts, report annually to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

Investigative Grand Juries

The General Assembly authorized investigative grand juries in drug trafficking cases (Chapter 843, 1986 Session Laws). Heretofore, grand juries have had almost no investigative authority in North Carolina. Upon request of a district attorney and concurrence of the Attorney General, a special three judge panel appointed by the Chief Justice will determine whether an investigative grand jury should be convened. District attorneys are authorized to grant immunity to witnesses who refuse to testify, and refusal thereafter is punishable as contempt of court. Testimony heard by the grand jury is to be recorded by a court reporter.

Infractions Law Changes

The General Assembly extended the effective date of decriminalization of minor traffic offenses from July 1, 1986, to September 1, 1986 (Chapter 852, 1986 Session Laws). This act also provides a defendant with a jury trial in superior court after an appeal from district court, unless the defendant consents to trial without a jury.

Court Costs

The General Assembly amended G.S. 7A-304(a)(3) to increase criminal court costs by $3.00, effective January 1, 1987. The increased fees will be used for law enforcement retirement funds.

G.S. 7A-307, which provides for assessment of $.40 per $100 of the gross estate in administration of trusts under wills, was also amended. The amendment prohibits this assessment on personal property administered under a testamentary trust if the will was administered in North Carolina; and instead, a fee of $10 is assessed on the filing of each annual and final account in such trusts. The new law took effect on July 1, 1986, and applies to personal property received under a will on or after that date.

Appropriations

The 1986 Session of the General Assembly appropriated a total of $146,394,689 to the Judicial Department for the 1986-87 fiscal year. Of this amount, $9,449,333 is for private assigned counsel fees for representing indigents.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA COURT SYSTEM

From its early colonial period North Carolina's judicial system has been the focus of periodic attention and adjustment. Through the years, there has been a repeated sequence of critical examination, proposals for reform, and finally the enactment of some reform measures.

Colonial Period

Around 1700 the royal governor established a General (or Supreme) Court for the colony and a dispute developed over the appointment of associate justices. The Assembly conceded to the King the right to name the chief justice but unsuccessfully tried to win for itself the power to appoint the associate justices. Other controversies developed concerning the creation and jurisdiction of the courts and the tenure of judges. As for the latter, the Assembly's position was that judge appointments should be for good behavior as against the royal governor's decision for life appointment. State historians have noted that "the Assembly won its fight to establish courts and the judicial structure in the province was grounded on laws enacted by the legislature," which was more familiar with local conditions and needs (Lefler and Newsome, 142). Nevertheless, North Carolina alternated between periods under legislatively enacted reforms (like good behavior tenure and the Court Bill of 1746, which contained the seeds of the post-Revolutionary court system) and periods of stalemate and anarchy after such enactments were nullified by royal authority. A more elaborate system was framed by legislation in 1767 to last five years. It was not renewed because of persisting disagreement between local and royal partisans. As a result, North Carolina was without higher courts until after Independence (Battle, 847).

At the lower court level during the colonial period, judicial and county government administrative functions were combined in the authority of the justices of the peace, who were appointed by the royal governor.

After the Revolution

When North Carolina became a state in 1776, the colonial structure of the court system was retained largely intact. The Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions — the county court which continued in use from about 1670 to 1868 — were still held by the assembled justices of the peace in each county. The Justices were appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the General Assembly, and they were paid out of fees charged litigants. On the lowest level of the judicial system, magistrate courts of limited jurisdiction were held by justices of the peace, singly or in pairs, while the county court was out of term.

The new Constitution of 1776 empowered the General Assembly to appoint judges of the Supreme Court of Law and Equity. A court law enacted a year later authorized three superior court judges and created judicial districts. Sessions were supposed to be held in the court towns of each district twice a year, under a system much like the one that had expired in 1772. Just as there had been little distinction in terminology between General Court and Supreme Court prior to the Revolution, the terms Supreme Court and Superior Court were also interchangeable during the period immediately following the Revolution.

One of the most vexing governmental problems confronting the new State of North Carolina was its judiciary. "From its inception in 1777 the state's judiciary caused complaint and demands for reform." (Lefler and Newsome, 291, 292.) Infrequency of sessions, conflicting judge opinions, an insufficient number of judges, and lack of means for appeal were all cited as problems, although the greatest weakness was considered to be the lack of a real Supreme Court.

In 1779, the legislature required the Superior Court judges to meet together in Raleigh as a Court of Conference to resolve cases which were disagreed on in the districts. This court was continued and made permanent by subsequent laws. The justices were required to put their opinions in writing to be delivered orally in court. The Court of Conference was changed in name to the Supreme Court in 1805 and authorized to hear appeals in 1810. Because of the influence of the English legal system, however, there was still no conception of an alternative to judges sitting together to hear appeals from cases which they had themselves heard in the districts in panels of as few as two judges (Battle, 848). In 1818, though, an independent three-judge Supreme Court was created for review of cases decided at the Superior Court level.

Meanwhile, semi-annual superior court sessions in each county were made mandatory in 1806, and the State was divided into six circuits, or ridings, where the six judges were to sit in rotation, two judges constituting a quorum as before.

The County Court of justices of the peace continued during this period as the lowest court and as the agency of local government.

After the Civil War

Major changes to modernize the judiciary and make it more democratic were made in 1868. A primary holdover from the English legal arrangement — the distinction between law and equity proceedings — was abolished. The County Court's control of local government was abolished. Capital offenses were limited to murder, arson, burglary and rape, and the Constitution stated that the aim of punishment was "not only to satisfy justice, but also to reform the offender, and thus prevent crime." The membership of the Supreme Court was raised to five, and the selection of the justices (including the designation of the chief justice) and superior court judges (raised in number to 12) was taken from the legislature and given to the voters, although vacancies were to be filled by the governor until the next election. The Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions — The County Court of which three justices of the peace constituted a quorum — was eliminated. Its judicial responsibilities were divided between the Superior Courts and the individual justices of the peace, who were retained as separate judicial officers with limited jurisdiction.

Conservatively oriented amendments to the 1868 Constitution in 1875 reduced the number of Supreme Court justices to three and the Superior Court judges to nine. The General Assembly was given the power to appoint justices of the peace, instead of the governor. Most of the modernizing changes in the post-Civil War Constitution, however, were left, and the judicial structure it had established continued without systematic modification through more than half of the 20th century. (A further constitutional amendment approved by the voters in November, 1888, returned the Supreme Court membership to five, and the number of superior court judges to twelve.)

Before Reorganization

A multitude of legislative enactments to meet rising demands and to respond to changing needs had heavily encumbered the 1868 judicial structure by the time systematic court reforms were proposed in the 1950's. This accrual of piecemeal change and addition to the court system was more evident at the lower, local court level, where hundreds of courts specially created by statute operated with widely dissimilar structure and jurisdiction.

By 1965, when the implementation of the most recent major reforms was begun, the court system in North Carolina consisted of four levels: (a) the Supreme Court, with appellate jurisdiction; (b) the superior court, with general trial jurisdiction; (c) the local statutory courts of limited jurisdiction, and (d) justices of the peace and mayor's courts, with petty jurisdiction.

At the superior court level, the State had been divided into 30 judicial districts and 21 solicitorial districts. The 38 superior court judges (who rotated among the counties) and the district solicitors were paid by the State. The clerk of superior court, who was judge of probate and often also a juvenile judge, was a county official. There were specialized branches of superior court in some counties for matters like domestic relations and juvenile offenses.

The lower two levels were local courts. At the higher of these local court levels were more than 180 recorder-type courts. Among these were the county recorder's courts, municipal recorder's courts and township recorder's courts; the general county courts, county criminal courts and special county courts; the domestic relations courts and the juvenile courts. Some of these had been established individually by special legislative acts more than a half-century earlier. Others had been created by general law across the State since 1919. About half were county courts and half were city or township courts. Jurisdiction included misdemeanors (mostly traffic offenses), preliminary hearings and sometimes civil matters. The judges, who were usually part-time, were variously elected or appointed locally.

At the lowest level were about 90 mayor's courts and some 925 justices of the peace. These officers had similar criminal jurisdiction over minor cases with penalties up to a $50 fine or 30 days in jail. The justices of the peace also had civil jurisdiction of minor cases. These court officials were compensated by the fees they exacted, and they provided their own facilities.

Court Reorganization

The need for a comprehensive evaluation and revision of the court system received the attention and support of Governor Luther H. Hodges in 1957, who encouraged the leadership of the North Carolina Bar Association to pursue the matter. A Court Study Committee was established as an agency of the North Carolina Bar Association, and that Committee issued its report, calling for reorganization, at the end of 1958. A legislative Constitutional Commission, which worked with the Court Study Committee, finished its report early the next year. Both groups called for the structuring of an all-inclusive court system which would be directly state-operated, uniform in its organization throughout the State and centralized in its administration. The plan was for a simplified, streamlined and unified structure. A particularly important part of the proposal was the elimination of the local statutory courts and their replacement by a single District Court; the office of justice of the peace was to be abolished, and the newly fashioned position of magistrate would function within the District Court as a subordinate judicial office.

Constitutional amendments were introduced in the legislature in 1959 but these failed to gain the required three-fifths vote of each house. The proposals were reintroduced and approved at the 1961 session. The Constitutional amendments were approved by popular vote in 1962, and three years later the General Assembly enacted statutes to put the system into effect by stages. By the end of 1970 all of the counties and their courts had been incorporated into the new system, whose unitary nature was symbolized by the name, General Court of Justice. The designation of the entire 20th century judicial system as a single, statewide "court," with components for various types and levels of caseload, was adapted from North Carolina's earlier General Court, whose full venue extended to all of the 17th century counties.

After Reorganization

Notwithstanding the comprehensive reorganization adopted in 1962, the impetus for changes has continued. In 1965, the Constitution was amended to provide for the creation of an intermediate Court of Appeals. It was amended again in 1972 to allow for the Supreme Court to censure or remove judges upon the recommendation of a Judicial Standards Commission. As for the selection of judges, persistent efforts were made in the 1970's to obtain legislative approval of amendments to the State Constitution, to appoint judges according to "merit" instead of electing them by popular, partisan vote. The proposed amendments received the backing of a majority of the members of each house, but not the three-fifths required to submit constitutional amendments to a vote of the people. It seems likely that this significant issue will be before the General Assembly again for consideration.

THE PRESENT COURT SYSTEM

Original Jurisdiction and Routes of Appeal

- (1) Appeals from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court are by right in Utilities Commission general rate cases, cases involving constitutional questions, and cases in which there has been dissent in the Court of Appeals. In its discretion, the Supreme Court may review Court of Appeals decisions in cases of significant public interest or cases involving legal principles of major significance.
- (2) Appeals from these agencies lie directly to the Court of Appeals.
- (3) As a matter of right, appeals go directly to the Supreme Court in criminal cases in which the defendant has been sentenced to death or life imprisonment, and in civil cases involving the involuntary annexation of territory by a municipality of 5,000 or more population. In all other cases appeal as of right is to the Court of Appeals. In its discretion, the Supreme Court may hear appeals directly from the trial courts in cases where delay would cause substantial harm or the Court of Appeals docket is unusually full.

*The district and superior courts have concurrent original jurisdiction in civil actions (G.S. 7A-242). However, the district court division is the proper division for the trial of civil actions in which the amount in controversy is $10,000 or less; and the superior court division is the proper division for the trial of civil actions in which the amount in controversy exceeds $10,000 (G.S. 7A-243).

**Magistrate jurisdiction in small claims cases increased from $1,000 to $1,500 effective October 1, 1985.

THE PRESENT COURT SYSTEM

Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution establishes the General Court of Justice which "shall constitute a unified judicial system for purposes of jurisdiction, operation, and administration, and shall consist of an Appellate Division, a Superior Court Division, and a District Court Division."

The Appellate Division is comprised of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals.

The Superior Court Division is comprised of the superior courts which hold sessions in the county seats of the 100 counties of the State. The counties are grouped into judicial districts (34 at the present time), and one or more superior court judges are elected for each of the judicial districts. A clerk of the superior court for each county is elected by the voters of the county.

The District Court Division is comprised of the district courts. The General Assembly is authorized to divide the State into a convenient number of local court districts and prescribe where the district courts shall sit, but district court must sit in at least one place in each county. The General Assembly has provided that districts for purposes of the district court are co-terminous with superior court judicial districts. The Constitution also provides for one or more magistrates to be appointed in each county "who shall be officers of the district court."

The State Constitution (Art. IV, Sec. 1) also contains the term, "judicial department," stating that "The General Assembly shall have no power to deprive the judicial department of any power or jurisdiction that rightfully pertains to it as a co-ordinate department of the government, nor shall it establish or authorize any courts other than as permitted by this Article." The terms, "General Court of Justice" and "Judicial Department" are almost, but not quite, synonymous. It may be said that the Judicial Department encompasses all of the levels of court designated as the General Court of Justice plus all administrative and ancillary services within the Judicial Department.

The original jurisdictions and routes of appeal between the several levels of court in North Carolina's system of courts are illustrated in the chart on the opposite page.

Criminal Cases

Trial of misdemeanor cases is within the original jurisdiction of the district courts. Some misdemeanor offenses are tried by magistrates, who are also empowered to accept pleas of guilty to certain offenses and impose fines in accordance with a schedule set by the Conference of Chief District Court Judges. Most trials of misdemeanors are by district court judges, who also hold preliminary, "probable cause" hearings in felony cases. Trial of felony cases is within the jurisdiction of the superior courts.

Decisions of magistrates may be appealed to the district court judge. In criminal cases there is no trial by jury available at the district court level; appeal from the district courts' judgments in criminal cases is to the superior courts for trial de novo before a jury. Except in life imprisonment or death sentence cases (which are appealed to the Supreme Court), appeal from the superior courts is to the Court of Appeals.

Civil Cases

The 100 clerks of superior court are ex officio judges of probate and have original jurisdiction in probate and estates matters. The clerks also have jurisdiction over such special proceedings as adoptions, partitions, condemnations under the authority of eminent domain, and foreclosures. Rulings of the clerk may be appealed to the superior court.

The district courts have original jurisdiction in juvenile proceedings, domestic relations cases, petitions for involuntary commitment to a mental hospital, and are the "proper" courts for general civil cases where the amount in controversy is $10,000 or less. If the amount in controversy is $1,500 or less and the plaintiff in the case so requests, the chief district court judge may assign the case for initial hearing by a magistrate. Magistrates' decisions may be appealed to the district court. Trial by jury for civil cases is available in the district courts; appeal from the judgment of a district court in a civil case is to the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

The superior courts are the proper courts for trial of general civil cases where the amount in controversy is more than $10,000. Appeals from decisions of most administrative agencies are first within the jurisdiction of the superior courts. Appeal from the superior courts in civil cases is to the Court of Appeals.

Administration

The North Carolina Supreme Court has the "general power to supervise and control the proceedings of any of the other courts of the General Court of Justice." (G.S. 7A-32(b)).

In addition to this grant of general supervisory power, the North Carolina General Statutes provide certain Judicial Department officials with specific powers and responsibilities for the operation of the court system. The Supreme Court has the responsibility for prescribing rules of practice and procedures for the appellate courts and for prescribing rules for the trial courts to supplement those prescribed by statute. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court designates one of the judges of the Court of Appeals to be its Chief Judge, who in turn is responsible for scheduling the sessions of the Court of Appeals.

The chart on page 10 illustrates specific responsibilities for administration of the trial courts vested in Judicial Department officials by statute. The Chief Justice appoints the Director and an Assistant Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts; this Assistant Director also serves as the Chief Justice's administrative assistant. The schedule of sessions of superior court in the 100 counties is set by the Supreme Court; assignment of the State's rotating superior court judges is the responsibility of the Chief Justice. Finally, the Chief Justice designates a chief district court judge for each of the State's 34 judicial districts from among the elected district court judges of the respective districts. These judges have responsibilities for the scheduling of the district courts and magistrates' courts within their respective districts, along with other administrative responsibilities.

THE PRESENT COURT SYSTEM

The Administrative Office of the Courts is responsible for direction of non-judicial, administrative and business affairs of the Judicial Department. Included among its functions are fiscal management, personnel services, information and statistical services, supervision of record keeping in the trial court clerks' offices, liaison with the legislative and executive departments of government, court facility evaluation, purchase and contract, education and training, coordination of the program for provision of legal counsel to indigent persons, juvenile probation and after-care, trial court administrator services, planning, and general administrative services.

The clerk of superior court in each county acts as clerk for both the superior and district courts. Until 1980, the clerk also served as chairman of the county's calendar committee, which set the civil case calendars. Effective July 1, 1980, these committees were eliminated; day-to-day calendaring of civil cases is now done by the clerk of superior court or by a "trial court administrator" in some districts, under the supervision of the senior resident superior court judge and chief district court judge. The criminal case calendars in both superior and district courts are set by the district attorney of the respective district.

Principal Administrative Authorities for North Carolina Trial Courts

<sup>1</sup>The Supreme Court has general supervisory authority over the operations of the superior courts (as well as other trial courts). The schedule of superior courts is approved by the Supreme Court; assignments of superior court judges, who rotate from district to district, are the responsibility of the Chief Justice.

<sup>2</sup>The Director and an Assistant Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts are appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Chief Justice.

<sup>3</sup>The Supreme Court has general supervisory authority over the operations of the district courts (as well as other trial courts). The Chief Justice appoints a chief district court judge in each of the 34 judicial districts from the judges elected in the respective districts.

<sup>4</sup>The Administrative Office of the Courts is empowered to prescribe a variety of rules governing the operation of the offices of the 100 clerks of superior court, and to obtain statistical data and other information from officials in the Judicial Department.

<sup>5</sup>The district attorney sets the criminal-case trial calendars. In each district, the senior resident superior court judge and the chief district court judge are empowered to supervise the calendaring procedures for civil cases in their respective courts.

<sup>6</sup>In addition to certain judicial functions, the clerk of superior court performs administrative, fiscal and record-keeping functions for both the superior court and district court of his county. Magistrates, who serve under the supervision of the chief district court judge, are appointed by the senior resident superior court judge from nominees submitted by the clerk of superior court.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

The Supreme Court

At the apex of the North Carolina court system is the seven-member Supreme Court, which sits in Raleigh to consider and decide questions of law presented in civil and criminal cases on appeal. The Chief Justice and six associate justices are elected to eight-year terms by the voters of the State. There are two terms of the Supreme Court each year: a Spring Term commencing on the first Tuesday in February and a Fall Term commencing on the first Tuesday in September. The Court does not sit in panels. It sits only en banc, that is, all members sitting on each case.

Jurisdiction

The only original case jurisdiction exercised by the Supreme Court is in the censure and removal of judges upon the (non-binding) recommendations of the Judicial Standards Commission. The Court's appellate jurisdiction includes:

- cases on appeal by right from the Court of Appeals (cases involving substantial constitutional questions and cases in which there has been dissent in the Court of Appeals);
- cases on appeal by right from the Utilities Commission (cases involving final order or decision in a general rate matter);
- criminal cases on appeal by right from the superior courts (cases in which the defendant has been sentenced to death or life imprisonment); and
- cases in which review has been granted in the Supreme Court's discretion.

Discretionary review by the Supreme Court directly from the trial courts may be granted when delay would likely cause substantial harm or when the workload of the Appellate Division is such that the expeditious administration of justice requires it. However, most appeals are heard only after review by the Court of Appeals.

Administration

The Supreme Court has general power to supervise and control the proceedings of the other courts of the General Court of Justice. The Court has specific power to prescribe the rules of practice and procedure for the trial court divisions, consistent with any rules enacted by the General Assembly. The schedule of superior court sessions in the 100 counties is approved yearly, by the Supreme Court. The Clerk of the Supreme Court, the Librarian of the Supreme Court Library, and the Appellate Division Reporter are appointed by the Supreme Court.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court appoints the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts and an Assistant Director, who serve at the pleasure of the Chief Justice. He also designates a Chief Judge from among the judges of the Court of Appeals and a Chief District Court Judge from among the district judges in each of the State's 34 judicial districts. He assigns superior court judges, who regularly rotate from district to district, to the scheduled sessions of superior court in the 100 counties, and he is also empowered to transfer district court judges to other districts for temporary or specialized duty. The Chief Justice appoints three of the seven members of the Judicial Standards Commission — a judge of the Court of Appeals who serves as the Commission's chairman, one superior court judge and one district court judge. The Chief Justice appoints six of the 24 voting members of the N.C. Courts Commission: one associate justice of the Supreme Court; one Court of Appeals judge; two superior court judges; and two district court judges. The Chief Justice also appoints the Appellate Defender, and the Chief Hearing Officer of the Office of Administrative Hearings.

Expenses of the Court, 1985-86

Operating expenses of the Supreme Court during the 1985-86 fiscal year amounted to $2,063,229, an increase of 11.8% over total 1984-85 expenditures of $1,845,637. Expenditures for the Supreme Court during 1985-86 constituted 1.5% of all General Fund expenditures for the operation of the entire Judicial Department during the fiscal year.

Case Data, 1985-86

A total of 378 appealed cases were before the Supreme Court during the fiscal year, 169 that were pending on July 1, 1985 plus 209 cases filed through June 30, 1986. A total of 221 of these cases were disposed of, leaving 157 cases pending on June 30, 1986.

A total of 873 petitions (requests to appeal) were before the Court during the 1985-86 year, with 746 disposed during the year and 127 pending as of June 30, 1986. The Court granted more petitions for review (129) during 1985-86 than in any prior year.

More detailed data on the Court's workload is presented on the following pages.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

The Court of Appeals

The 12-judge Court of Appeals is North Carolina's intermediate appellate court; it hears a majority of the appeals originating from the State's trial courts. The Court regularly sits in Raleigh, and it may sit in other locations in the State as authorized by the Supreme Court. Sessions outside of Raleigh have not been regular or frequent. Judges of the Court of Appeals are elected by popular vote for eight-year terms. A Chief Judge for the Court is designated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and serves in that capacity at the pleasure of the Chief Justice.

Cases are heard by panels of three judges, with the Chief Judge responsible for assigning members of the Court to the four panels. Insofar as practicable, each judge is to be assigned to sit a substantially equal number of times with each other judge. The Chief Judge presides over the panel of which he or she is a member and designates a presiding judge for the other panels.

One member of the Court of Appeals, designated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, serves as chairman of the Judicial Standards Commission.

Jurisdiction

The bulk of the caseload of the Court of Appeals consists of cases appealed from the trial courts. The Court also hears appeals directly from the Industrial Commission; certain final orders or decisions of the North Carolina State Bar; and the Commissioner of Insurance; the State Board of Contract Appeals; and appeals from certain final orders or decisions of the Property Tax Commission. (Appeals from the decisions of other administrative agencies lie first within the jurisdiction of the superior courts.)

In the event of a recommendation from the Judicial Standards Commission to censure or remove from office a justice of the Supreme Court, the (non-binding) recommendation would be considered by the Chief Judge and the six judges next senior in service on the Court of Appeals (excluding the judge who serves as the Commission's chairman). Such seven-member panel would have sole jurisdiction to act upon the Commission's recommendation.

Expenses of the Court, 1985-86

Operating expenses of the Court of Appeals during the 1985-86 fiscal year totalled $2,763,224, an increase of 9.7% over 1984-85 expenditures of $2,518,083. Expenditures for the Court of Appeals during 1985-86 amounted to 2.0% of all General Fund expenditures for operation of the entire Judicial Department during the fiscal year. This percentage share of the total is the same as the Court of Appeals' percentage share of the Judicial Department total in the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Case Data, 1985-86

A total of 1,381 appealed cases were filed before the Court of Appeals during the period July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986. A total of 1,626 cases were disposed of during the same period. During 1985-86, a total of 546 petitions and 1,760 motions were filed before the Court of Appeals.

Further detail on the workload of the Court of Appeals is shown in the tables and graphs on the following pages.

THE PRESENT COURT SYSTEM
North Carolina Judicial Districts and Divisions

North Carolina has a total of 34 judicial districts. Regular superior court judges rotate from district to district within the division in which they reside. District court judges are usually assigned to hold court in counties within their districts. Prosecutorial districts coincide with judicial districts except for the Third District. Pitt County is Prosecutorial District 3A and Craven, Carteret and Pamlico Counties comprise Prosecutorial District 3B. Hence, there are 35 prosecutorial districts but only 34 judicial districts.

The Superior Courts

North Carolina's superior courts are the general jurisdiction trial courts for the state. In 1985-86, there were 64 "resident" superior court judges elected to office in the 34 judicial districts for eight-year terms by Statewide ballot. In addition, eight "special" superior court judges are appointed by the Governor for four year terms.

Jurisdiction

The superior court has original jurisdiction in all felony cases and in those misdemeanor cases which originate by grand jury indictment. (Most misdemeanors are tried first in the district court, from which conviction may be appealed to the superior court for trial de novo by a jury. No trial by jury is available for criminal cases in district court.) The superior court is the proper court for the trial of civil cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $10,000, and it has jurisdiction over appeals from administrative agencies except the Industrial Commission, certain rulings of the Commissioner of Insurance, the Board of Bar Examiners of the North Carolina State Bar, the Board of State Contract Appeals, and the Property Tax Commission. Appeals from these agencies lie directly to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. Regardless of the amount in controversy, the original civil jurisdiction of the superior court does not include domestic relations cases, which are heard in the district courts, or probate and estates matters and certain special proceedings heard first by the clerk of superior court. Rulings of the clerk are within the appellate jurisdiction of the superior court.

Administration

The 100 counties of North Carolina were grouped into 34 judicial districts during 1985-86. Each district has at least one resident superior court judge who has certain administrative responsibilities for his home district, such as providing for civil case calendaring procedures. (Criminal case calendars are prepared by the district attorneys.) In districts with more than one resident superior court judge, the judge senior in service on the superior court bench exercises these supervisory powers.

The judicial districts are grouped into four divisions for the rotation of superior court judges, as shown on the map on Page 30. Within the division, a resident superior court judge is required to rotate among the judicial districts, holding court for at least six months in each, then moving on to his next assignment. A special superior court judge may be assigned to hold court in any of the 100 counties. Assignments of all superior court judges are made by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Under the Constitution of North Carolina, at least two sessions (a week each) of superior court are held annually in each of the 100 counties. The vast majority of counties have more than the constitutional minimum of two weeks of superior court annually. Many larger counties have superior court in session about every week in the year.

Expenditures

A total of $14,263,095 was expended on the operations of the superior courts during the 1985-86 fiscal year. This included the salaries and travel expenses for the 72 superior court judges, and salaries and expenses for court reporters and secretarial staff for superior court judges. The 1985-86 expenditures for the superior courts amounted to 10.5% of total General Fund expenditures for the operations of the entire Judicial Department during the 1985-86 fiscal year.

Caseload

Including both civil and criminal cases, a total of 91,336 cases were filed in the superior courts during 1985-86, an increase of 5,767 cases (6.7%) from the total of 85,569 cases that were filed in 1984-85. There were increases in filings in all case categories: civil cases, felonies, and misdemeanor appeals.

Superior court case dispositions increased from 84,334 in 1984-85 to 88,089 in 1985-86. There were disposition increases in all case categories.

More detailed information on the flow of cases through the superior courts is included in Part IV of this Report.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

The District Courts

North Carolina's district courts are trial courts with original jurisdiction of the overwhelming majority of the cases handled by the State's court system. There were 146 district court judges serving in 34 judicial districts during 1985-86. These judges are elected to four-year terms by the voters of their respective districts.

A total of 631 magistrate positions were authorized as of June 30, 1986. Of this number, about 100 positions were specified as part-time. Magistrates are appointed by the senior resident superior court judge from nominations submitted by the clerk of the superior court of their county, and they are supervised by the chief district court judge of their district.

Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the district court extends to virtually all misdemeanor cases, probable cause hearings in most felony cases, all juvenile proceedings, involuntary commitments and commitments to mental hospitals, and domestic relations cases. The district courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts in general civil cases, but the district courts are the proper courts for the trial of civil cases where the amount in controversy is $10,000 or less. Upon the plaintiff's request, a civil case in which the amount in controversy is $1,500 or less, may be designated a "small claims" case and assigned by the chief district court judge to a magistrate for hearing. Magistrates are empowered to try worthless check criminal cases when the value of the check does not exceed $500. In addition, they may accept written appearances, waivers of trial, and pleas of guilty in such worthless check cases when the amount of the check is $500 or less, the offender has made restitution, and the offender has fewer than four previous worthless check convictions. Magistrates may accept waivers of appearance and pleas of guilty in traffic and ABC cases, and in boating, hunting and fishing violation cases, for which a uniform schedule of fines has been adopted by the Conference of Chief District Judges. Magistrates also conduct initial hearings to fix conditions of release for arrested defendants, and they are empowered to issue arrest and search warrants.

Administration

A chief district judge is appointed for each judicial district by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court from among the elected judges in the respective districts. Subject to the Chief Justice's general supervision, each chief judge exercises administrative supervision and authority over the operation of the district courts and magistrates in his district. Each chief judge is responsible for: scheduling sessions of district court and assigning judges; supervising the calendaring of noncriminal cases; assigning matters to magistrates; making arrangements for court reporting and jury trials in civil cases; and supervising the discharge of clerical functions in the district courts.

The chief district court judges meet in conference at least once a year upon the call of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Among other matters, this annual conference adopts a uniform schedule of traffic, ABC, boating, hunting, and fishing offenses and fines for their violation for use by magistrates and clerks of court in accepting defendants' waivers of appearance and guilty pleas.

Claude W. Allen, Jr., Oxford, President

George M. Britt, Tarboro, Vice President

Robert H. Lacey, Newland, Secretary

Expenditures

Total expenditures for the operation of the district courts in 1985-86 amounted to $24,908,806. This is an increase of 11.7% over 1984-85 expenditures of $22,303,686. Included in this total are the personnel costs of court reporters and secretaries as well as the personnel costs of the 146 district court judges and approximately 631 magistrates. The 1985-86 total is 18.3% of the General Fund expenditures for the operation of the entire Judicial Department, the same percentage share of total Judicial Department expenditures that the district courts took for the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Caseload

During 1985-86 the statewide total number of district court filings (civil and criminal) increased 127,702 (8.2%) over the total number reported for 1984-85. Not including juvenile proceedings and mental hospital commitment hearings, the filing total in 1985-86 was 1,682,321. Most of this increase was attributable to increases in the motor vehicle criminal case category, 67,174 cases (8.7%) more than the number of motor vehicle criminal cases in 1984-85; the civil magistrate case category, 21,973 cases (10.8%) more than the number of civil magistrate cases in 1984-85; and the general civil case category, 4,899 cases (11.4%) more than the number of general civil cases in 1984-85.

More detailed information on district court civil and criminal caseloads and on juvenile case activity is contained in Part IV of this Report.

The District Attorneys

The State is divided into 35 prosecutorial districts which, with one exception, correspond to the 34 judicial districts. By act of the 1981 Session of the General Assembly, the 3rd Judicial District is divided into two separate prosecutorial districts, Prosecutorial Districts 3A and 3B, effective October 1, 1981. Prosecutorial District 3A consists of Pitt County, and Prosecutorial District 3B is comprised of Craven, Carteret, and Pamlico (G.S. 7A-60). A district attorney is elected by the voters in each of the 35 districts for four-year terms.

Duties

The district attorney represents the State in all criminal actions brought in the superior and district courts in his district. In addition to his prosecutorial functions, the district attorney is responsible for calendaring criminal cases for trial.

Resources

Each district attorney may employ on a full-time basis the number of assistant district attorneys authorized by statute for his district. As of June 30, 1986, a total of 222 assistant district attorneys were authorized for the 35 prosecutorial districts. The district attorney of District 26 (Mecklenburg County) had the largest staff (19 assistants) and the district attorney of eight judicial districts (15A, 15B, 17A, 17B, 19B, 23, 24, 27B) had the smallest staff (three assistants).

Each district attorney is authorized to employ an administrative assistant to aid in preparing cases for trial and to expedite the criminal court docket. The district attorney in 18 of the 35 districts is authorized to employ an investigational assistant who aids in the investigation of cases prior to trial. By 1986 legislation, all district attorneys (formerly only 10) are authorized to employ a victim and witness assistant.

1985-86 Caseload

A total of 76,179 criminal cases were filed in the superior courts during 1985-86, consisting of 44,980 felony cases and 31,199 misdemeanor appeals from the district courts. The total number of filings in the superior courts (felonies and misdemeanors) in the previous year was 71,915. The increase of 4,264 cases in 1985-86 is a 5.9% increase over the 1984-85 total.

Total criminal cases disposed of by the superior courts in 1985-86 amounted to 74,000. There were 43,402 felony dispositions; the number of misdemeanor cases disposed of was 30,598. Compared with 1984-85, total criminal case dispositions increased by 3,031 over the 70,969 cases disposed of in that fiscal year.

The median ages of 1985-86 criminal cases at disposition in the superior courts were 86 days for felony cases and 67 days for misdemeanor appeals. In 1984-85, the median age of felony cases at disposition was 84 days, and the median age at disposition for misdemeanor appeals was 67 days.

Dispositions by jury trial in the superior courts, for felonies and misdemeanors, totalled 3,306 cases, or 4.5% of total criminal case dispositions in the superior courts. This was a decrease from jury dispositions of 3,577 (5.0% of total dispositions) during the 1984-85 year. As is evident, a very small proportion of all criminal cases utilize the great proportion of superior court time and resources required to handle the criminal caseload.

By contrast, in 1985-86 a majority (39,607 or 53.5%) of criminal case dispositions in superior courts were processed on submission of guilty pleas, not requiring a trial. This was close to the 51.8% of guilty plea dispositions reported for 1984-85.

"Dismissal by district attorney" accounted for a significant percentage of all dispositions during 1985-86; a total of 19,421 cases, or 26.2% of all dispositions. This proportion is comparable to that recorded for prior years. Many of the dismissals involved the situation of two or more cases pending against the same defendant, resulting in a plea bargain agreement where the defendant pleads guilty to some charges in exchange for a dismissal of others.

There was a decrease in the number of "Speedy Trial Act" dismissals in superior courts, from 71 in 1984-85 to 54 in 1985-86.

The total number of criminal cases disposed of in the superior courts was 2,179 cases less than the total number of cases filed in 1985-86. Consequently, the number of pending criminal cases in superior court increased from 23,086 at the beginning of the fiscal year to a total at year's end of 25,265, an increase of 9.4%.

The median age of pending felony cases in the superior courts decreased from 88 days on June 30, 1985 to 83 days on June 30, 1986. Misdemeanor appeals, on the other hand, recorded an increase, with the median age of pending misdemeanor appeals increasing from 72 days on June 30, 1985 to 74 days on June 30, 1986.

In the district courts, a total of 1,285,007 criminal cases were filed during 1985-86. This total consisted of 839,168 motor vehicle criminal cases and 445,839 non-motor vehicle criminal cases. A comparison of total filings in 1985-86 with total filings (1,184,528) in 1984-85 reveals an increase in district court criminal filing activity of 100,479 cases or 8.5%. Filings in the motor vehicle case category rose by 67,174 cases, from 771,994 cases in 1984-85 to 839,168 cases in 1985-86, an increase of 8.7%. Filings in the non-motor vehicle case category rose by 33,305 cases (8.1%), from a total of 412,534 cases in 1984-85 to 445,839 cases in 1985-86.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

Total dispositions in district courts during 1985-86 in the motor vehicle criminal case category amounted to 813,632 cases. As in prior years, a substantial portion (454,693 cases or 55.9%) was disposed of by waiver of appearance and entry of plea of guilty before a clerk or magistrate. This substantial number of criminal cases did not, of course, require action by the district attorneys' offices and should not be regarded as having been a part of the district attorneys' caseload. The remaining 358,939 motor vehicle cases were disposed of by means other than a waiver. This balance was 28,135 cases, or 8.5% more than the 330,804 such dispositions in 1984-85. (The clerks of court do not report motor vehicle criminal cases by case file number to the Administrative Office of the Courts. Only summary total number of filings and dispositions are reported. Therefore, it is not possible by computer-processing to obtain pending case data for the motor vehicle criminal case category.)

With respect to non-motor vehicle criminal case dispositions, a total of 432,206 such cases were disposed of in district courts in 1985-86. As with superior court criminal cases, the most frequent method of disposition was by entry of guilty plea; the next most frequent was dismissal by the district attorney. Some 152,003 cases, or 35.2% of the dispositions were by guilty pleas. An additional 109,596 cases, or 25.4% of the total were disposed of by prosecutor dismissal. The remaining cases were disposed of by waiver (12.9%), trial (11.0%), as a felony probable cause matter (9.0%), or by other means (6.5%).

During 1985-86, the median age at disposition of non-motor vehicle criminal cases was 28 days, compared with 27 days at disposition for 1984-85.

Total non-motor vehicle criminal dispositions were 13,633 cases less than the total of such filings during 1985-86. The number of non-motor vehicle criminal cases pending at year's end was 78,665, compared with a total of 65,032 at the beginning of the year, an increase of 13,633 (21.0%) in the number of pending cases. The median age for pending non-motor vehicle cases rose from 48 days on June 30, 1985 to 50 days on June 30, 1986.

Additional information on the criminal caseloads in superior and district courts is included in Part IV of this Report.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

The Clerks of Superior Court

A Clerk of Superior Court is elected for a four-year term by the voters in each of North Carolina's 100 counties. The Clerk has jurisdiction to hear and decide special proceedings and is, ex officio, judge of probate, in addition to performing record-keeping and administrative functions for both the superior and district courts of his county.

Jurisdiction

The original jurisdiction of the clerk of superior court includes the probate of wills and administration of decedents' estates. It also includes such "special proceedings" as adoptions, condemnations of private property under the public's right of eminent domain, proceedings to establish boundaries, foreclosures, and certain proceedings to administer the estates of minors and incompetent adults. The right of appeal from the clerks' judgments in such cases lies to the superior court.

The clerk of superior court is also empowered to issue search warrants and arrest warrants, subpoenas, and other process necessary to execute the judgments entered in the superior and district courts of his county. For certain misdemeanor criminal offenses, the clerk is authorized to accept defendants' waiver of appearance and plea of guilty and to impose a fine in accordance with a schedule established by the Conference of Chief District Court Judges.

Administration

The clerk of superior court performs administrative duties for both the superior and district courts of his county. Among these duties are the maintenance of court records and indexes, the control and accounting of funds, and the furnishing of information to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

In most counties, the clerk continues to perform certain functions related to preparation of civil case calendars, and in many counties, the clerk's staff assists the district attorney in preparing criminal case calendars as well. Policy and oversight responsibility for civil case calendaring is vested in the State's senior resident superior court judges and chief district court judges. However, day-to-day civil calendar preparation is the clerk's responsibility in all districts except those served by trial court administrators.

Expenditures

A total of $42,316,248 was expended in 1985-86 for the operation of the 100 clerk of superior court offices. In addition to the salaries and other expenses of the clerks and their staffs, this total includes expenditures for jurors' fees, and witness expenses.

Total expenditures for clerks' offices in 1985-86 amounted to 31.1% of the General Fund expenditures for the operations of the entire Judicial Department.

1985-86 Caseload

During 1985-86, estate case filings totalled 41,593. This was an increase over the 40,733 cases filed in 1984-85. Estate case dispositions totalled 39,765 cases in 1985-86, or 3.0% more than the previous year's total of 38,615.

A total of 35,281 special proceedings was filed before the 100 clerks of superior court in 1985-86. This is an increase of 1,998 cases (6.0%) from the 33,283 filings in the previous fiscal year. Special proceedings dispositions totalled 31,735 cases, or 1.5% more than the previous year's total of 31,263.

The clerks of superior court are also responsible for handling the records of all case filings and dispositions in the superior and district courts. The total number of superior court case filings during the 1985-86 year was 91,336 and the total number of district court filings, not including juvenile proceedings and mental hospital commitment hearings, was 1,682,321.

More detailed information on the estates and special proceedings caseloads is included in Part IV of this Report.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

Juvenile Services Division

The Juvenile Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts provides intake, probation and aftercare services to juveniles who are before the District Courts for delinquent matters, i.e., violations of the criminal code, including motor vehicle violations; and for undisciplined matters, such as running away from home, being truant, and being beyond the parents' disciplinary control.

Intake is the screening of complaints alleging delinquent or undisciplined behavior by children, to determine whether petitions should be filed. During the 1985-86 year a total of 25,521 complaints were brought to the attention of intake counselors. Of this number, 16,187 (63.4%) were approved for filing, and 9,334 (36.6%) were not approved for filing.

Probation and aftercare refer to supervision of children in their own communities. Probation is authorized by judicial order. Aftercare service is provided for juveniles after their release from a training school. (Protective supervision is also a form of court-ordered supervision within the community, and this service is combined with probation and aftercare.)

In 1985-86 a total of 16,241 juveniles were supervised in the probation and aftercare program.

Expenditures

The Juvenile Services Division is State-funded. The expenditures for fiscal year 1985-86 totalled $9,708,673. This was an increase of 14.0% over the 1984-85 expenditures. The 1985-86 expenditures amounted to 7.3% of all General Fund expenditures for the operation of the entire Judicial Department, close to the same percentage share of total Judicial Department expenditures for the Division as in the previous fiscal year.

Administration

The Administrator of the Juvenile Services Division is appointed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts. A chief court counselor is appointed for each judicial district by the Administrator of the Juvenile Services Division, with the approval of the Chief District Court Judge and the Administrative Officer of the Courts. Subject to the Administrator's general supervision, each chief court counselor exercises administrative supervision over the operation of the court counseling services in the respective districts.

Public Defenders

During 1985-86, there were seven public defender offices in North Carolina, serving Judicial Districts 3,* 12, 15B, 18, 26, 27A, and 28. The public defender of each district is appointed by the senior resident superior court judge of that district from a list of not less than two and not more than three names nominated by written ballot of the attorneys resident in the district who are licensed to practice law in North Carolina. Their terms are four years. Each public defender is by statute provided a minimum of one full-time assistant public defender and additional full-time or part-time assistants as may be authorized by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Entitlement of Indigents to Counsel

A person is determined to be indigent if he is found "financially unable to secure legal representation." He is entitled to State-paid legal representation in: any proceeding which may result in (or which seeks relief from) confinement; a fine of $500 or more; or extradition to another State; a proceeding alleging mental illness or incapacity which may result in hospitalization, sterilization, or the loss of certain property rights; and juvenile proceedings which may result in confinement, transfer to superior court for a felony trial, or termination of parental rights.

Most of the cases of State-paid representation of indigents in the districts with public defenders are handled by the public defender's office. However, the court may in certain circumstances—such as existence of a potential conflict of interest—assign private counsel to represent an indigent defendant. In the other 28 districts, the assigned private counsel system was the only one used.

Expenditures

A total of $3,282,969 was expended for the operation of the seven public defenders' offices during 1985-86. This was an increase of $359,995 (12.3%) over the 1984-85 total of $2,922,974.

*The public defender serves only two counties of the four in District 3: Pitt and Carteret.

1985-86 Caseload

The seven public defender offices disposed of cases involving a total of 20,970 defendants during 1985-86. This was an increase of 1,884 defendants, or 9.9%, over the 19,086 defendants represented during 1984-85.

Additional information concerning the operation of these offices is found in Part III of this Annual Report.

The Appellate Defender Office began operation as a State-funded program on October 1, 1981. (Prior to that date, appellate defender services were funded by a one-year federal grant.) The 1985 General Assembly made permanent The Appellate Defender Office by repealing its expiration provision. In accord with the assignments made by trial court judges, it is the responsibility of the Appellate Defender and his staff to provide criminal defense appellate services to indigent persons who are appealing their convictions to the N. C. Supreme Court, the N. C. Court of Appeals, or to Federal courts.

The Appellate Defender is appointed by, and carries out his duties under the general supervision of the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice may, consistent with the resources available to the Appellate Defender and to insure quality criminal defense services, authorize certain appeals to be assigned to a local public defender office or to private assigned counsel instead of to the Appellate Defender.

1985-86 Caseload

As of July 1, 1985, the Appellate Defender had 56 cases pending in the North Carolina Supreme Court. During the 1985-86 year, a total of 74 additional appeals to the Supreme Court were assigned to the Appellate Defender's Office, and during that year a total of 43 cases in the Supreme Court were disposed of. This left 92 cases pending as of June 30, 1986. During the 1985-86 year, the Appellate Defender and his staff filed a total of 58 briefs and 96 petitions in the Supreme Court.

As of July 1, 1985, the Appellate Defender had 214 cases pending in the North Carolina Court of Appeals. During the 1985-86 year, a total of 114 additional appeals to the Court of Appeals were assigned to the Appellate Defender's Office, and during that year, a total of 244 cases in the Court of Appeals were disposed of. This left 84 cases pending as of June 30, 1986. During the 1985-86 year, the Appellate Defender and his staff filed a total of 151 briefs and 17 petitions in the Court of Appeals.

The 1981 General Assembly amended the statutes pertaining to the Courts Commission, to increase the number of voting members from 15 to 23, with the Governor to appoint seven voting members, the President of the Senate to appoint eight voting members, and the Speaker of the House to appoint eight voting members. The non-voting ex officio members remained the same: a representative of the North Carolina Bar Association, a representative of the North Carolina State Bar, and the Administrative Officer of the Courts.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS IN 1985-86

The North Carolina Courts Commission

The 1983 Session of the General Assembly further amended G.S. 7A-506, to revise the voting membership of the Commission. Effective July 1, 1983, the Commission is to consist of 24 voting members, six to be appointed by the Governor; six to be appointed by the Speaker of the House; six to be appointed by the President of the Senate; and six to be appointed by the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court. The Governor continues to appoint the Chairman of the Commission, from among its legislative members. The non-voting ex officio membership of three persons remains the same.

Of the six appointees of the Chief Justice, one is to be a Justice of the Supreme Court, one is to be a Judge of the Court of Appeals, two are to be judges of superior court, and two are to be judges of district court.

Of the six appointees of the Governor, one is to be a district attorney, one a practicing attorney, one a clerk of superior court, and three are to be members or former members of the General Assembly and at least one of these shall not be an attorney.

Of the six appointees of the Speaker of the House, at least three are to be practicing attorneys, and three are to be members or former members of the General Assembly, and at least one of these three is not to be an attorney.

Of the six appointees of the President of the Senate, at least three are to be practicing attorneys, three are to be members or former members of the General Assembly, and at least one is to be a magistrate.

During the 1985-86 year the Courts Commission had a total of seven meetings, all of which were held in Raleigh.

The following Commission proposals were approved by the 1986 Session of the General Assembly:

- Statutory amendment eliminating numbered seats for election of judges of the superior court (Chapter 957, S 893).

- Statutory amendment providing that when two superior court seats with terms of different lengths in the same district must be filled at the same election, the full terms and expired terms are treated as different offices, and candidates may file for only one of the offices (Chapter 986, S 892); but if Chapter 986, S 892 is not pre-cleared under section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, then in elections in which seats are unnumbered, candidates with the most votes get the longer terms (Chapter 987, S 922). (Note: Chapter 986 has been pre-cleared.)
- Statutory amendment delaying until September 1, 1986, the effective date of and making technical changes to the infractions legislation enacted in the 1985 session (Chapter 852, H 1509).
- Statutory amendment effective October 1, 1986 limiting judges from exempting defendants on supervised probation from the $10 per month supervision fee to cases in which the defendant files a motion and the court finds good cause for the excuse (Chapter 859, H 1573).

The Courts Commission also introduced two bills which never emerged from committee: (1) an act to add the Attorney General to the Courts Commission and to allow the Commission to use subcommittees; and (2) an act to authorize an arbitration of civil cases pilot project in the twenty-sixth judicial district.

In addition, the Commission proposed legislation to provide that an assistant district attorney may not concurrently hold elective office. This bill failed the second reading in the Senate.

Finally, in two resolutions the Commission expressed its general support of uniformly applying court costs to all cases, and limiting such costs to the expense of performing the service for which they are assessed; and the Commission urged the General Assembly to provide a central repository for the filing of decisions rendered by the justice department under section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

THE JUDICIAL STANDARDS COMMISSION

July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986

The Judicial Standards Commission was established by the General Assembly pursuant to a constitutional amendment approved by the voters at the general election in November 1972.

Upon recommendation of the Commission, the Supreme Court may censure or remove any judge for willful misconduct in office, willful and persistent failure to perform his duties, habitual intemperance, conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, or conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into disrepute. In addition, upon recommendation of the Commission, the Supreme Court may remove any judge for mental or physical incapacity interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent.

Where a recommendation for censure or removal involves a justice of the Supreme Court, the recommendation and supporting record is filed with the Court of Appeals which has and proceeds under the same authority for censure or removal of a judge. Such a proceeding would be heard by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and the six judges senior in service, excluding the Court of Appeals judge who by law serves as the Chairman of the Judicial Commission.

In addition to a recommendation of censure or removal, the Commission also utilizes a disciplinary measure known as a reprimand. The reprimand is a mechanism administratively developed for dealing with inquiries where the conduct does not warrant censure or removal, but where some action is justified. Since the establishment of the Judicial Standards Commission in 1973, reprimands have been issued in fourteen instances covering 20 inquiries.

During the July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986 fiscal year, the Judicial Standards Commission met on November 1, 1985, and March 21, 1986.

A complaint or other information against a judge, whether filed with the Commission or initiated by the Commission on its own motion, is designated as an "Inquiry Concerning a Judge." Fourteen such inquiries were pending as of July 1, 1985, and 59 inquiries were filed during the fiscal year, giving the Commission a total workload of 73 inquiries.

During the fiscal year, the Commission disposed of 55 inquiries, and 18 inquiries remained pending at the end of the fiscal year.

The determinations of the Commission regarding the 55 inquiries disposed of during the fiscal year were as follows:

- (1) fifty-one inquiries were determined to involve evidentiary rulings, length of sentences, or other matters not within the Commission's jurisdiction rather than questions of judicial misconduct;
  - (2) one inquiry was determined to involve allegations of conduct which did not rise to such a level as would warrant investigation by the Commission;
  - (3) two inquiries were determined to warrant no further action following completion of preliminary investigations; and
  - (4) one inquiry resulted in the issuance of a reprimand.
- Of the 18 inquiries pending at the end of the fiscal year:
- (1) fifteen inquiries were awaiting initial review by the Commission; and
  - (2) three inquiries covered in five preliminary investigative files were awaiting completion of the investigation or were subject to other action by the Commission.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT FINANCES

Under the State Constitution the operating expenses of the Judicial Department (all North Carolina courts) "other than compensation to process servers and other locally paid non-judicial officers" are required to be paid from State funds. It is customary legislative practice for the General Assembly to include appropriations for the operating expenses of all three branches of State government in a single budget bill, for a two-year period ending on June 30 of the odd-numbered years. The budget for the second year of the biennium is generally modified during the even-year legislative session.

Building facilities for the appellate courts are provided by State funds, but, by statute, the county governments are required to provide from county funds for adequate facilities for the trial courts within each of the 100 counties.

Appropriations from the State's General Fund for operating expenses for all departments and agencies of State government, including the Judicial Department, totalled $4,801,279,494 for the 1985-86 fiscal year. (Appropriations from the Highway Fund and appropriations from the General Fund for capital improvements and debt servicing are not included in this total.)

The appropriation from the General Fund for the operating expenses of the Judicial Department for 1985-86 was $134,145,813. As illustrated in the chart below, this General Fund appropriation for the Judicial Department comprised 2.8% of the General Fund appropriations for the operating expenses of all State agencies and departments.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT FINANCES

Appropriation from the State's general fund for operating expenses of the Judicial Department over the past seven fiscal years are shown in the table below and in the graph at the top of the following page. For comparative purposes, appropriations from the general fund for operating expenses of all State agencies and departments (including the Judicial Department) for the last seven fiscal years are also shown in the table below and in the second graph on the following page.

AVERAGE ANNUAL INCREASE 1979-1986		11.28%	10.15%

During the past decade, including the seven-year period covered by the above table, inflation has been a significant factor in the national economy.

The greatest percentage increase in Judicial Department appropriations during the last seven years was for the 1980-81 fiscal year. The increase for that year was due in large measure to a 10% pay increase for Judicial Branch personnel, with the same pay increase provided for personnel of all State government agencies. A 10% pay increase was also provided for the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Fiscal year 1982-83 shows the smallest percentage increase in Judicial Department appropriations during the seven-year period. The decline in percentage increase that year was consistent with a similar decline for all State government agencies.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT FINANCES

Expenditures, July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986

As the above chart illustrates, most (91%) of Judicial Department expenditures goes for operation of the State's trial courts: operation of superior courts took 10.5% of total expenditures; operation of the district courts (including magistrates, judges and court reporters) took 18.3% of the total;

the clerks' office, 31.1% of the total; and district attorneys offices, 11.5% of total Judicial Department expenditures.

The total General Fund expenditures of $136,029,696 for 1985-86 represents an 11.4% increase over expenditures of $122,061,777 in 1984-85.

Department Receipts July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986

Receipts for the Judicial Department in the 1985-86 fiscal year totalled $78,842,797. The several sources of these receipts are shown in the table below. As in the previous years, the major source of receipts is the assessment of "court costs" in superior and district courts, paid by litigants in accordance with the schedule of costs and fees set out in G.S. 7A-304 et seq.; these payments constituted 66.30% of the total receipts during 1985-86. Fines and forfeitures made up 28.84% of the total. Receipts in the remaining categories—Supreme Court and Court of Appeals filing fees, sales of Supreme Court and Court of Appeals Reports and payments on indigent representation judgments—made up less than five percent of the total.

This total of $78,842,797 is an increase of 12.4% over total 1984-85 receipts of $69,064,408. The graph below illustrates increases in recent years in total Judicial Department receipts.

Distribution of Judicial Department Receipts (July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986)

As required by the State Constitution, fines, penalties and forfeitures collected by the courts in criminal cases are distributed to the respective counties in which the cases are tried. These funds must be used by the counties for the support of the public schools.

A uniform schedule of court costs for civil and criminal cases, comprised of a variety of fees, is set by statute for cases filed in the superior and district courts. Statutes prescribe the distribution of these fees and provide that certain fees shall be devoted to specific uses. For example, a facilities fee is included in court costs when costs are assessed, and this fee is paid over to the respective county or municipality which provided the facility used in the case. These fees must be utilized by the counties and municipalities to provide and maintain courtrooms and related judicial facilities.

Officer fees (for arrest and service of process) are included, where applicable, in the cost of each case filed in the trial courts. If a municipal officer performed these services in a case, the fee is paid over to the respective municipality. Otherwise, all officer fees are paid to the respective counties in which the cases are filed.

A jail fee is included in the costs of each case where applicable; and these fees are distributed to the respective county or municipality whose facilities were used. Most jail facilities in the State are provided by the counties.

A fee for the Law Enforcement Officers Benefit and Retirement Fund is included as a part of court costs when costs are assessed in a criminal case. As required by statute, the Judicial Department remits these fees to the State Treasurer, for deposit in the Law Enforcement Officers Benefit and Retirement Fund.

Except as indicated, all superior and district court costs collected by the Judicial Department are paid into the State's General Fund, as are appellate court fees and proceeds from the sales of appellate division reports.

When private counsel or a public defender is assigned to represent an indigent defendant in a criminal case, the trial judge sets the money value for the services rendered. If the defendant is convicted, a judgment lien is entered against him for such amount. Collections on these judgments are paid into and retained by the department to defray the costs of legal representation of indigents.

Proceeds from the ten-day driver license revocation fee, which driving-while-intoxicated offenders must pay to recover their driver licenses, are distributed to the counties.

Cost and Case Data on Representation of Indigents July 1, 1985 — June 30, 1986

The State provides legal counsel for indigent persons in a variety of actions and proceedings, as specified in the North Carolina General Statutes, Sections 7A-450 et seq. These include criminal proceedings, judicial hospitalization proceedings, juvenile proceedings which may result in commitment to an institution or transfer to superior court for trial as an adult. Legal representation for indigents may be by assignment of private counsel, by assignment of special public counsel (involving mental hospital commitments), or by assignment of a public defender.

Seven of North Carolina's judicial districts have an office of public defender: Districts 3, 12, 15B, 18, 26, 27A, and 28. The other 27 districts utilize only assignments of private counsel. Private counsel may also be assigned in the seven districts which have a public defender in the event of a conflict of interest involving the public defender's office and the indigent and in the event of unusual circumstances when, in the opinion of the court, the proper administration of justice requires the assignment of private counsel rather than the public defender in those cases.

During 1985-86, the Criminal Law Clinic of the School of Law, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, provided counsel services to indigents in 188 cases (no felonies), assigned by the courts in Orange County to the Clinic. These counsel services for indigents were provided by the Clinic at no cost to the Judicial Department.

The Appellate Defender Office began operation as a State-funded program on October 1, 1981. (Prior to October 1, 1981, appellate defender services were funded by a one-year federal grant.) Pursuant to assignments made by trial court judges, it is the responsibility of the Appellate Defender and his staff to provide criminal defense appellate services to indigent persons who are appealing their convictions to either the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals. The Appellate Defender is under the general supervision of the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice may, consistent with the resources available to the Appellate Defender and to insure quality criminal defense services, authorize certain appeals to be assigned to a local public defender office or to private assigned counsel instead of to the Appellate Defender. The case and cost data reported below reflect the activity of this office in both the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1986.

In addition, the State provides a full-time special counsel at each of the State's four mental hospitals, to represent patients in commitment or recommitment hearings before a district court judge. Under North Carolina law, each patient committed to a mental hospital is entitled to a judicial hearing (before a district court judge) within 90 days after the initial commitment, a further hearing within 180 days after the initial commitment, and thereafter a hearing once a year during the continuance of an involuntary commitment.

A juvenile alleged to be within the jurisdiction of the court has the right to be represented by counsel in all proceedings; and juveniles are conclusively presumed to be indigent and entitled to State-appointed and State-paid counsel (G.S. 7A-584). When a petition alleges that a juvenile is abused or neglected, the judge is required to appoint a guardian ad litem. If the guardian ad litem is not an attorney, the judge in addition is to appoint an attorney to represent the juvenile's interests (G.S. 7A-586). And where a juvenile petition alleges that a juvenile is abused, neglected or dependent, the parent has a right to appointed counsel in cases of indigency (G.S. 7A-587).

The cost of all programs of indigent representation, rounded to the nearest dollar, was $16,480,870 in the 1985-86 fiscal year, compared to $14,639,125 in the 1984-85 fiscal year, an increase of 12.6%. The total amount expended for these activities was 12.1% of total Judicial Department expenditures in the 1985-86 fiscal year.

Following is a summary of case and cost data for representation of indigents for the fiscal year, July 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986.

PART IV

TRIAL COURTS CASEFLOW DATA

- Superior Court Division
- District Court Division

TRIAL COURTS CASE DATA

This part of the Annual Report presents pertinent data on a district-by-district and county-by-county basis. For ease of reference, this part is divided into a superior court division section and a district court division section.

The data within the two sections generally parallel each other in terms of organization, with each section subdivided into civil and criminal case categories. With some exceptions, there are three basic data tables for each case category: a caseload inventory (filings, dispositions and pending) table; a table on the manner of dispositions; and a table on ages of cases disposed of during the year and ages of cases pending at the end of the year. Pending and age data are not provided for district court motor vehicle criminal cases, for civil cases (small claims) referred to magistrates, and for juvenile cases, inasmuch as these categories of cases are not reported by case file number.

The caseload inventory tables provide a statistical picture of caseflow during the 1985-86 year. Items recorded in this table include the number of cases pending at the beginning of the year, the number of new cases filed, the number of cases disposed of during the year, and the number of cases left pending at the end of the year. The caseload inventory shows the total caseload (the number pending at the beginning of the year plus the number filed during the year) and the percentage of the caseload which was disposed of during the year.

The aging tables show the ages of the cases pending on June 30, 1986 as well as the ages of the cases disposed of during 1985-86. These tables also show both mean (average) and median ages for each set of cases—those pending at the end of the year and those that were disposed of during the year. The median age of a group of cases is, by definition, the age of a hypothetical case which is older than 50% of the total set of cases and younger than the other 50%.

Unlike the median, the mean age can be substantially raised (or lowered) if even a small number of very old (or very young) cases are included. For example, if only a single two-year old case was included among ten cases aged three months, the median age would be 90 days and the mean (average) age would be 148.2 days. A substantial difference between the median and average ages, therefore, indicates the presence of a number of rather long-pending, or short-pending, cases.

The case statistics in Part IV have been calculated from filing and disposition case data submitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) by the 100 clerks of superior court across the State. The present case reporting system is primarily a manual one: weekly reports from each clerk's office are mailed to Raleigh, where they are computer-coded, entered and processed. Pending case information is computer-calculated from the filing and disposition data. The accuracy of the pending case figures is, of course, dependent upon timely and accurate filing and disposition data.

Periodic comparisons by clerk personnel of their actual pending case files against AOC's computer-produced pending case lists, followed by indicated corrections, is necessary to maintain completely accurate data in the AOC computer file. Yet, staff resource in the clerks' offices is not sufficient to make such physical inventory checks as frequently and as completely as would be necessary to maintain full accuracy in AOC's computer files. Thus, it is recognized that some of the figures published in the following tables have errors of some degree.

Another accuracy-related problem inherent in a manual reporting system is the lack of absolute consistency in the published year-end and year-beginning pending figures. The number of cases pending at the end of a reporting year should ideally be identical with the number of published pending cases at the beginning of the next reporting year. In reality, this is rarely the case. Experience has shown that inevitably some filings and dispositions which occurred in the preceding year do not get reported until the subsequent year. The later-reported data is regarded as being more complete reporting and is used, thereby producing some differences between the prior year's end-pending figures and the current year's beginning-pending figures.

Notwithstanding the indicated limitations in the data reporting and data-processing system, it is believed that the published figures are sufficiently adequate to fully justify their use. In any event, the published figures are the best and most accurate data currently available.

PART IV, Section 1

Superior Court Division

Caseflow Data

The Superior Court Division

This section contains data tables and accompanying charts depicting the caseload during the 1985-86 year of cases pending, filed, and disposed of in the State's superior courts; that is, cases before superior court judges. Data is also presented on cases pending, filed and disposed of before the 100 clerks of superior court, who have original jurisdiction over estate cases and special proceedings.

There are, for statistical reporting purposes, three categories of cases filed in the superior courts: civil cases, felony cases which are within the original jurisdiction of the superior courts, and misdemeanor appeals from the district courts to superior courts, for trial de novo.

During 1985-86, as in previous years, the greatest proportion of superior court filings were felonies (49.2%), followed by misdemeanor appeals (34.2%) and civil cases (16.6%). The general trend over the past decade has been for increases in the total number of case filings. During 1985-86, total case filings in superior courts increased by 6.7% from the preceding fiscal year (from 85,569 total cases to 91,336). Filings of civil cases increased by 11.0%, felony filings increased by 9.9%, and misdemeanor appeal filings increased by 0.6%.

As in previous years, superior court civil cases generally take much longer to dispose of than do criminal cases. During 1985-86, the median age at disposition of civil cases was 289 days, compared to a median age at disposition of 86 days for felonies and 67 days for misdemeanors. A similar pattern exists for the ages of pending cases. The median ages of superior court cases pending at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1986, was 224 days for civil cases, 83 days for felonies, and 74 days for misdemeanors.

These differences in the median ages of civil versus criminal cases in superior courts can be attributed in part to the priority given criminal cases. In criminal cases, a defendant has a right to a "speedy trial" guaranteed by both the United States and North Carolina Constitutions and by the North Carolina Speedy Trial Act (G.S. 15A-701 et seq.). The Speedy Trial Act requires cases to go to trial within 120 days of filing unless there has been justifiable delay for one or more of the reasons set out in the statute. During 1985-86, 54 criminal cases were dismissed under the Speedy Trial Act, a decrease of 23.9% as compared to the 71 cases which were dismissed under the Act during 1984-85.

There is no comparable statutory standard for speedy disposition of civil cases in North Carolina, although the North Carolina Constitution does provide that "right and justice shall be administered without favor, denial, or delay" (Article I, Section 18, N.C. Constitution).

Comparing 1985-86 median-age data with the same information from 1984-85, it is seen that the median ages at disposition have decreased for civil cases but have remained relatively the same for criminal cases. From 1984-85 to 1985-86, the median ages at disposition decreased for civil cases, from 314 to 289 days; increased slightly for felonies, from 84 to 86 days; and remained the same for misdemeanors, 67 days. As to the ages of cases pending on June 30, 1986, compared to the ages of cases pending on June 30, 1985, it is seen that the median ages of pending cases have decreased for civil cases and felonies, but increased slightly for misdemeanors. The median age of civil cases pending in the superior courts on June 30, 1986 was 224 days, compared to 236 days on June 30, 1985; for felonies, 83 days on June 30, 1986, compared to 88 days on June 30, 1985; and for misdemeanors, 74 days on June 30, 1986, compared to 72 days on June 30, 1985.

The three major case categories (civil, felonies, and misdemeanors) may be broken down into more specific case types.

Negligence cases comprised 44% of total civil filings in superior courts (6,673 of 15,157 total civil filings). Contract cases comprised the next largest category of civil case filings, 23.1% (3,506 filings).

Felony case filings were dominated by burglary, 19.0% (8,538 of 44,980 total filings), controlled substance violations, 17.2% (7,750 filings), larceny, 14.2% (6,386 filings), and forgery and utterings, 13.3% (5,981 filings).

Non-motor vehicle appeals comprised 54.6% of misdemeanor filings in superior courts (17,021 of 31,199 total filings).

Tables which follow present data on the manner of disposition of superior court cases. Jury trials continue to account for a low percentage of case dispositions: 6.7% of civil cases (938 of 14,089 civil dispositions); 4.8% of felonies (2,062 of 43,402 felony dispositions); and 4.1% of misdemeanors (1,244 of 30,598 misdemeanor dispositions). Over half (53.2%) of all civil dispositions were by voluntary dismissal (7,497 of 14,089 civil dispositions). As in previous years, most criminal cases are disposed of by guilty plea; 64.1% of all felony (27,816 of 43,402), and 38.6% of all misdemeanor dispositions (11,791 of 30,598) were by guilty plea, with most of these being to the offense as charged.

CASELOAD TRENDS IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS

Following a slower rate of increase in the early 1980s, filings and dispositions in superior court appear to have resumed the earlier pattern of significant annual increases. During 1985-86, filings increased by 6.7% and dispositions increased by 4.5% over the 1984-85 year.

SUPERIOR COURT CASELOAD

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

Compared to last year, superior court filings increased in all categories. During fiscal year 1985-86, civil filings increased 11.0%, felonies 9.9%, and misdemeanor appeals 0.6%. Dispositions also increased in each category, but by a lower percentage than did filings, leaving 40,180 cases pending in superior court on June 30, 1986, an 8.2% increase from the number of cases pending on June 30, 1985.

MEDIAN AGES OF SUPERIOR COURT CASES

Median Ages (in days) of Cases Pending June 30, 1986

Median Ages (in days) of Cases Disposed of During 1985-86

The median age is the age with respect to which 50% of all cases in the category are younger and 50% of all cases are older than the median age; it is the 50th percentile of ages of all cases in the category. As shown in the above graphs, the median ages of all civil superior court cases pending and disposed during fiscal year 1985-86 are greater than the median ages of criminal superior court cases pending and disposed. This is due to civil cases taking longer than criminal cases to process.

CASELOAD TRENDS OF CIVIL CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS

1976 — 1985-86

Civil filings in the superior courts grew sharply for the second consecutive year. Dispositions also increased, but not as much, leaving an increased number of cases pending at year end.

FILINGS OF CIVIL CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS—BY TYPE OF CASE

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

Non-motor vehicle negligence case filings declined from 2,152 in 1984-85 to 2,053 in 1985-86. All other categories of civil filings increased significantly. As was the case last year, almost half (44.0%) of the civil cases filed statewide during 1985-86 were negligence cases (6,673 of the 15,157 total filings). The "other" category includes non-negligent torts such as conversion of property, civil fraud, and civil assault.

MANNER OF DISPOSITION OF CIVIL CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

As in previous years, voluntary dismissals account for the largest number of civil case dispositions in superior courts. The next most prominent category, pretrial orders and judgments by the judge, includes summary and consent judgments, and orders changing venue. The "other" category includes miscellaneous dispositions such as discontinuance for lack of service of process under Civil Rule 4(e), dismissal on motion of the court, and removal to federal court.

MANNER OF DISPOSITION OF FELONIES IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

Guilty pleas continue to account for more than 60% of all superior court felony dispositions, with the overwhelming majority of these being guilty pleas to the offense as charged. Dismissals on this chart include voluntary dismissals with and without leave, and speedy trial dismissals. "Other" dispositions, i.e. those which do not fall into the specific categories given on this chart, may include change of venue, dismissal by the court, no true bill, dispositions of writs of habeas corpus from fugitive warrants, and dispositions of probation violations from other counties.

MANNER OF DISPOSITION OF MISDEMEANORS IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

Guilty pleas account for nearly 40% of misdemeanor dispositions in superior court, the overwhelming majority of which are guilty pleas to the offense charged. The "other" category on this chart includes withdrawn appeals, cases remanded to district court for judgment, and other miscellaneous dispositions such as change of venue, dismissal by the court, no true bill, probation violations from other counties, and dispositions of writs of habeas corpus from fugitive warrants. Dismissals on this chart include voluntary dismissals with and without leave, and speedy trial dismissals.

PART IV, Section 2

District Court Division

Caseflow Data

The District Court Division

This section contains data tables and accompanying charts depicting the caseload in 1985-86 of cases filed and disposed of in the State's district courts, including those handled by magistrates.

When the plaintiff in a civil case requests, and the amount in controversy does not exceed $1,500, the case may be classified as a "small claim" civil action and assigned to a magistrate for hearing. Magistrates also have certain criminal case jurisdiction. They may accept written appearance and waiver of trial, with plea of guilty, and enter judgment in accord with the schedule of fines promulgated by chief district judges for traffic offenses; and effective July 1, 1984, for boating, hunting and fishing offenses. Also, magistrates may accept guilty pleas in other misdemeanor cases where the sentence cannot be in excess of 30 days or $50 fine; and may hear and enter judgment in worthless check cases where the amount involved is $500 or less, and any prison sentence imposed does not exceed 30 days.

Appeals from magistrates' judgments in both civil and criminal cases are to the district court, with a district court judge presiding.

This section contains data on three major case classifications in the district court division: civil cases, juvenile proceedings, and criminal cases. Civil cases include cases assigned to magistrates (small claims as defined above), domestic relations cases (chiefly concerned with annulments, divorces, alimony, custody and support of children), and "general civil" cases. Juvenile proceedings are classified in accordance with the nature of the offense or condition alleged in the petition which initiates the case. District court criminal cases are divided into motor vehicle cases (where the offense charged is defined in Chapter 20 of the North Carolina General Statutes) and non-motor criminal cases.

Consistent with previous years, the pie charts on the following page illustrate that district court criminal cases filed and disposed of in the 1985-86 year greatly outnumbered civil cases. Motor vehicle criminal cases accounted for about fifty percent of total filings and dispositions, and the non-motor vehicle criminal cases accounted for about twenty-seven percent. As in past years, the greatest portion of district court civil filings and dispositions were small claims referred to magistrates.

The large volume categories of criminal motor-vehicle and civil magistrate cases are not reported to AOC by case file numbers. Therefore, it is not possible to obtain, by computer processing, the numbers of pending cases as of a given date or the ages of cases pending and ages of cases at disposition. These categories of cases are processed through the courts faster than any others, thus explaining the decision not to allocate personnel and computer resource to reporting these cases in the detail that is provided for other categories of cases.

Also, juvenile proceedings and hearings on commitment or recommitment of persons to the State's mental hospital facilities are not reported to AOC by case file numbers.

Two tables are provided on juvenile proceedings: offenses and conditions alleged, and numbers of adjudicatory hearings held.

Data on district court hearings for mental hospital commitments and recommitments is reported in Part III, "Cost and Case Data on Representation of Indigents."

Ages of district court cases pending on June 30, 1986, and ages of cases disposed of during 1985-86 are reported for the domestic relations, general civil and magistrate appeal/transfer, and criminal non-motor vehicle case categories.

The tables for domestic relations and general civil and magistrate appeal/transfer cases show that the median age of such cases which were pending on June 30, 1986, was 143 and 159 days, respectively, compared with a median age of 149 days for domestic relations and 152 days for general civil and magistrate appeal/transfer cases pending on June 30, 1985. At the time of disposition during 1985-86, the median age of domestic relations cases was 53 days, and the median age for general civil and magistrate/transfer cases was 105 days, compared with a median age of 51 days at the time of disposition for domestic relations cases and 110 days for civil and magistrate appeal/transfer cases during 1984-85.

For district court non-motor vehicle criminal cases, the median age for cases pending on June 30, 1986, was 50 days compared with a median age of 48 days for cases pending on June 30, 1985. The median age of cases in this category at the time of disposition during 1985-86 was 28 days compared with a median age of 27 days at the time of disposition during 1984-85.

The statewide total district court filings during 1985-86, not including juvenile cases, and mental hospital commitment hearings, and civil license revocations, was 1,626,149 cases, compared with 1,496,526 during 1984-85, an increase of 129,623 (8.7%). Most of this increase came in the motor vehicle criminal case category where filings in 1984-85 amounted to 771,994 cases compared to 839,168 cases filed in 1985-86, an increase of 67,174 (8.7%) cases. There was an increase of 33,305 cases (8.1%) in the non-motor vehicle criminal case category.

There also was an increase (9.3%) in district court civil case filings, from a total of 311,998 in 1984-85 to 341,142 in 1985-86. Most of this increase was in civil magistrate filings, from 204,071 cases in 1984-85 to 226,044 cases in 1985-86. In the domestic relations category, there was an increase of 2,272 cases in 1985-86 compared to the number in 1984-85.

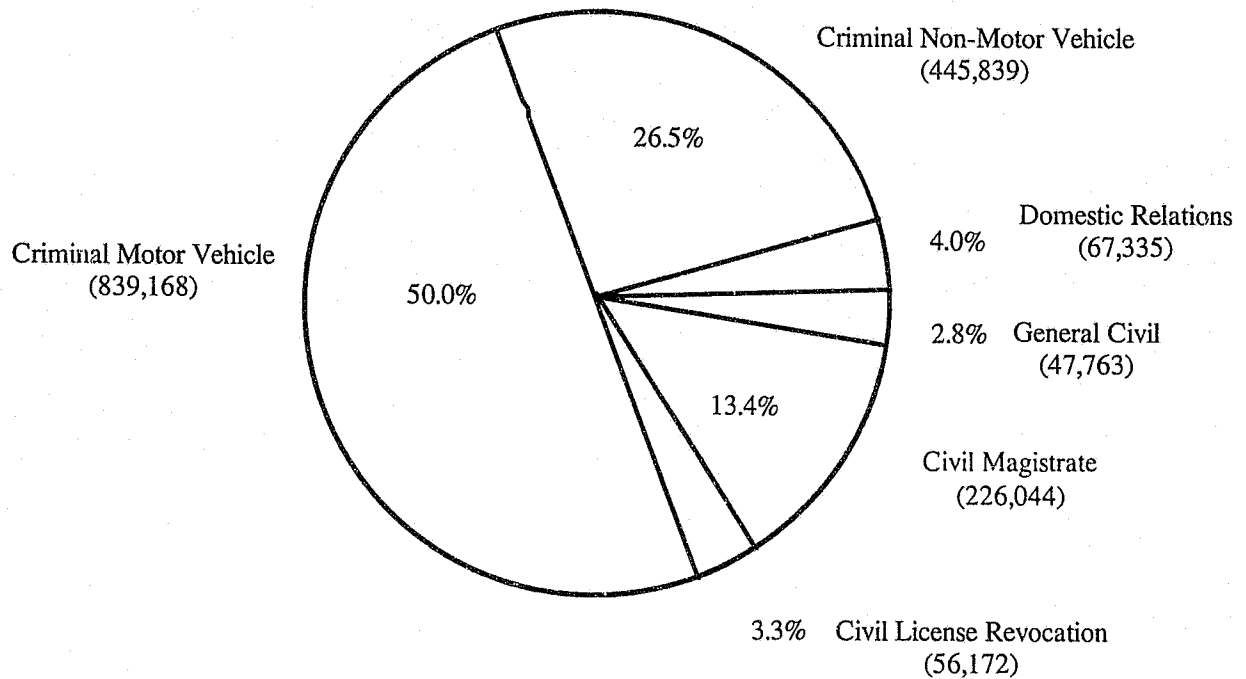

The changes from year-to-year in the individual case categories are not unusual. The over-all trend for total district court case filings over the past several years has been upward. This upward trend is reflected in the total 1985-86 district court case filings.

FILINGS AND DISPOSITIONS IN THE DISTRICT COURTS

July 1, 1985—June 30, 1986

FILINGS

DISPOSITIONS

Criminal cases comprise three fourths of the filings and dispositions in the district courts. Motor vehicle cases account for most of the criminal caseload, and half the total caseload. The 56,172 civil license revocations in the upper chart are the automatic, 10-day driver license suspensions imposed on drivers arrested on suspicion of impaired driving whose breath tests show a blood alcohol content of 0.10 or more. Those cases are counted only at filing, and do not appear on the lower chart.

FILING AND DISPOSITION TRENDS IN THE DISTRICT COURT CASES

1976-1985-86

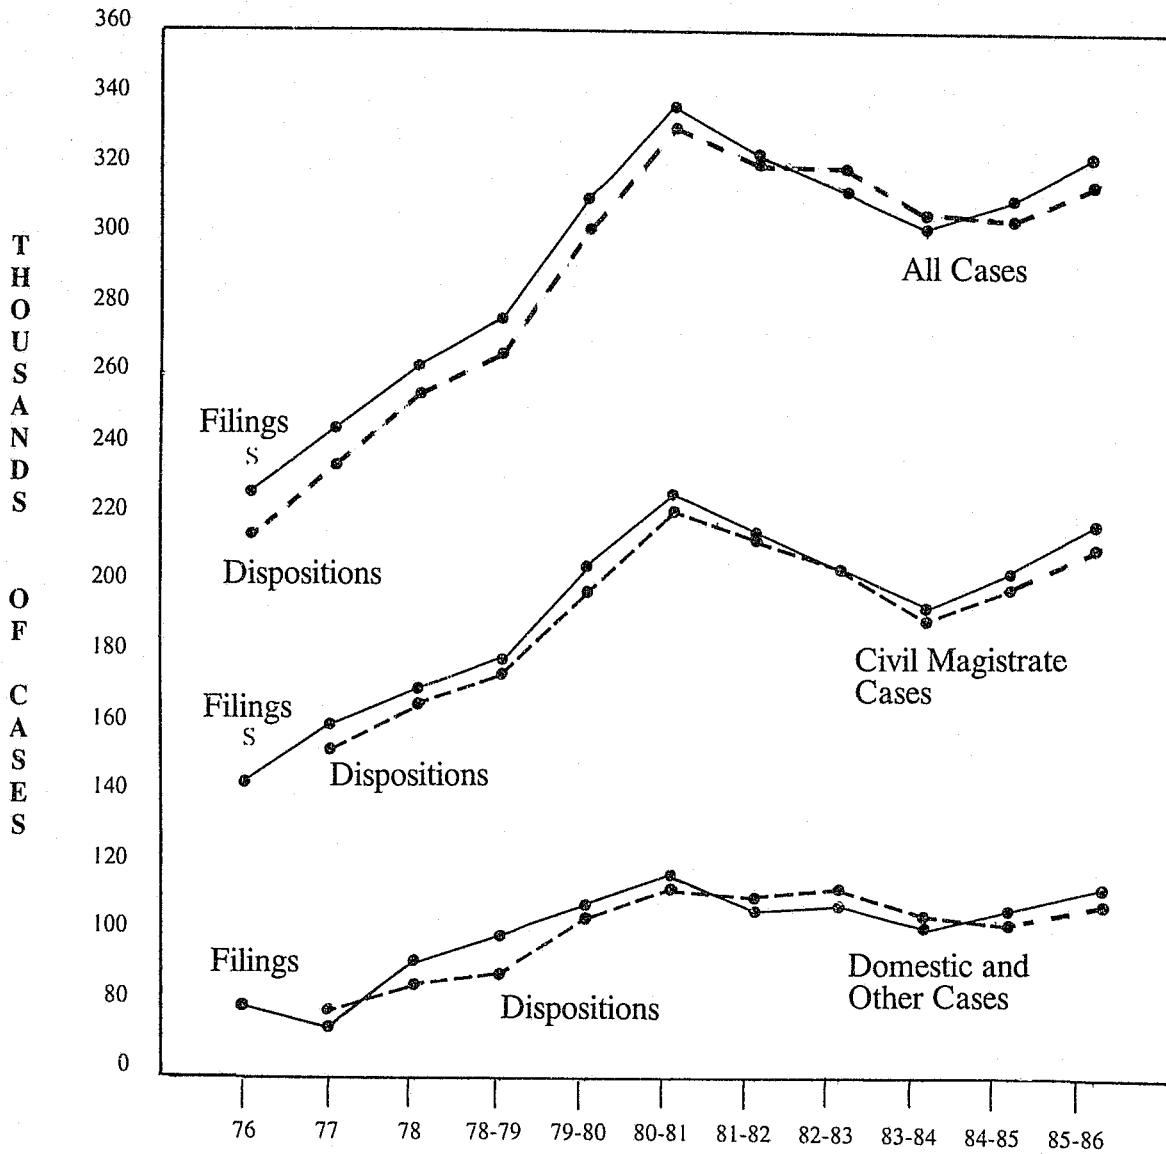

All civil and criminal case filings and dispositions for the last decade, including traffic offenses and civil magistrate cases, are included in the above graph. The increase in filings and dispositions for fiscal year 1985-86 is largely due to the 11.4% increase in general civil case filings, the 10.8% increase in civil magistrate case filings, and the 8.7% increase in criminal motor vehicle case filings.

FILING AND DISPOSITION TRENDS IN THE DISTRICT COURT CASES

1976-1985-86

Civil magistrate filings increased 10.8% over last year, and other civil district filings increased 6.6%. These are continuations of the trends of last year.

CIVIL (NON-MAGISTRATE) CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURTS

July 1, 1985-June 30, 1986

Dispositions of domestic relations cases increased 6.3% in 1985-86 compared to 1984-85, while filings increased 3.4%. That left 28,355 cases pending on June 30, 1986 compared to 26,260 in 1985. Even though dispositions increased more than filings, the growth in total caseload caused a slight increase in the number pending at the end of the year. The largest increase (11.4%) came in general civil filings.

FILINGS OF CIVIL (NON—MAGISTRATE) CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURTS BY TYPE OF CASE

July 1, 1985-June 30, 1986

“URES A” stands for the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, and refers to actions enforcing child support orders entered by judges in one state by the courts of another. “IV-D” refers to actions to collect child support owed to social services clients. The “Other” category includes such civil actions as annulment, divorce, equitable distribution of property, alimony, child support, and child custody.

MANNER OF DISPOSITION OF CIVIL (NON-MAGISTRATE) CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURTS

July 1, 1985-June 30, 1986

Most civil cases in the district courts are disposed of by judges, either before trial or with a bench (non-jury) trial. The number of jury trials declined from 722 in 1984-85 to 631 during the 1985-86 year. Included in the "other" category for dispositions of district court civil (non-magistrate) cases are actions such as removal to federal court or order from another state closing a Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act case.

CRIMINAL NON-MOTOR VEHICLE CASES
July 1, 1985-June 30, 1986

MISDEMEANORS

FELONY PROBABLE CAUSE MATTERS

Guilty pleas predominate in the disposition of criminal non-motor vehicle cases in the district courts. The waivers referred to in the upper chart are waivers of trial in worthless check cases when the defendant pleads guilty to a magistrate.

Included in the "other" category for the dispositions of misdemeanors are changes of venue, waivers of extradition, no probable cause at initial appearance, and dismissals by the court.
