INTRODUCTION

The National Institute of Justice/NCJRS is pleased to sponsor the Criminal Justice Information Exchange (CJIE) Group. An informal, cooperative association of libraries serving the criminal justice community, the group aims to foster communication and cooperation among member libraries and to enhance user services.

Member libraries have resolved to strengthen services in the criminal justice area through information exchange and interlibrary loan. In addition, group members will provide information to criminal justice patrons about their collection, policies, and services.

The National Criminal Justice Reference Services, a CJIE member, serves as the group coordinator and produced this Directory. NCJRS is an international clearinghouse of justice information sponsored by the National Institute of Justice (NIJ), a research arm of the Department of Justice. NCJRS also maintains or supports data bases and performs other clearinghouse functions for other Department of Justice agencies. These include the Juvenile Justice Clearinghouse/NCJRS, with funding from the National Institute for Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, plus the Justice Statistics Clearinghouse and the Data Center and Clearinghouse for Drugs and Crime, both funded by the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

For more information about participation in the Criminal Justice Information Exchange Group, contact:

How to Use This Directory

The Criminal Justice Information Exchange Directory provides quick access to the locations, holdings, and services of member libraries. The directory lists CJIE libraries alphabetically by State and province, and alphabetically by city within State, and includes the following information when applicable: name of library, street and/or mailing address, telephone, and name and title of person to contact. The size of the criminal justice collection (books, periodicals, AV materials) is indicated, as well as special interest area(s). In addition, online, interlibrary loan and microfiche capabilities, and other services are described, and any restrictions on the use of library facilities or holdings are explained. Additional information is included under "notes."

At the back of the directory is a listing of 50 GPO Regional Depository Libraries, which permanently hold all documents selected for the Depository Program, including many criminal justice documents. As regional depositories, they also provide reference services and interlibrary loan services. Those that are CJIE members are indicated with an asterisk (*).
