The caseload activity of the Courts of Appeal, comprised of the Supreme Court and the Intermediate Court of Appeals, reflects the combined workload of the two courts. Excluded from the number of filings and terminations in the Courts of Appeal are the cases assigned by the Supreme Court to the Intermediate Court of Appeals. Primary Cases are original cases filed in the Office of the Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court. Appeals and original proceedings are classified as primary cases. Supplemental Proceedings arise out of primary cases. During the fiscal year, of the 1,886 supplemental proceedings filed, 1,783 were filed in the Supreme Court, and 103 were filed in the Intermediate Court of Appeals.

Primary Proceedings are original cases filed, representing direct contact with the public, so their numbers may fluctuate according to variations in population. Supplemental Proceedings arise out of primary proceedings (such as Order to Show Cause for support in matrimonial and parental cases; proceedings in aid of judgment in civil cases, etc.). They consume a large part of the Courts' caseload activity time, but their numbers do not vary in direct relation to changes in population. Backlog represents the number of cases pending at the end of a statistical period that must be carried over to become part of the caseload of the succeeding statistical period. Circuit Courts Proper have jurisdiction over adversary cases (such as civil contract and negligence cases and criminal cases) and non-adversary proceedings (such as probate and guardianship, plus naturalization proceedings in all except the First Circuit). Family Courts in each circuit have jurisdiction in all matrimonial actions, adoptions, juvenile matters, as well as matters involving incapacitated persons.

Data for the First Circuit, Circuit Court Proper, does not include inactive criminal cases (deferred acceptance of guilty plea, deferred acceptance of nolo contendere plea, bench warrants, and cases suspended by the court).

1. Criminal cases filed in the Circuit Court Proper are felonies and misdemeanors. The latter type of case generally is transferred from the District Court when a jury trial is demanded by the defendant. Excluded are juvenile and adult cases which are under the jurisdiction of the Family Court. The data reflects only those criminal cases which were reported as disposed during the fiscal year, and excludes those which are still pending disposition such as cases which are awaiting trial, cases which are awaiting sentencing, and cases on Deferred Acceptance of Guilty Plea status.

A case represents a defendant in a criminal case. Thus, if a criminal case which was initiated by an indictment names three defendants, for case counting purposes, this is reported as three criminal cases. When multiple offenses are involved, the most serious offense is selected and utilized for classification purposes.

2. Offense Charged represents the original offense named on the complaint or indictment. An offense may be amended by the prosecutor during progress of cases. Upon disposition of the case, the final offense may be the same as the offense charged, a lesser included offense, or one of the other offenses named on a complaint or indictment.

The categories presented are those utilized by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) in their annual series: Uniform Crime Reports.

For illustrative purposes, some examples of sentences meted by the courts are listed below.

A defendant convicted of two counts of burglary in the first degree was sentenced to (1) commitment in a correctional facility for a period of ten years and (2) a suspended sentence. The statistical reporting clerk selects "incarceration" as the sentence.

A defendant was acquitted of a charge of murder, but convicted of failure to register firearm and sentenced to probation for a period of five years. The clerk selects the probation sentence.

Sentences given to convicted defendants are authorized by statute. (HRS 706-605)

3. Criminal cases are dismissed for various reasons: the witness for the prosecution left the jurisdiction and thus was unavailable to testify, or the defendant was not given a speedy trial, or the defendant had successfully fulfilled the terms and conditions of the Deferred Acceptance of Guilty Plea, etc.

4. Defendants are acquitted by the jury or the judge after trial.

5. The judge may sentence a convicted defendant by suspending imposition of sentence. This sentence may or may not include payment of a fine, or restitution.

6. A sentence of fine may also include restitution, but excludes cases where the defendant is also sentenced to incarceration or probation.

7. A sentence of incarceration in the case of a defendant convicted of a felony offense is to confinement in a community correctional facility (prison) for a period of five years or longer. This sentence may include payment of a fine or of restitution. If a defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor offense, he/she is sentenced to confinement in a community correctional facility for a period up to one year.

8. Probation as a sentence may include payment of a fine, or restitution, or community service. In addition, a person sentenced to probation may also be ordered to serve up to one year in a correctional facility as a condition of probation for a felony offense, and up to six months for a misdemeanor offense.

9. Community Service is a relatively recent alternative provided by statute. The court shall not sentence a person only to perform community service... unless "it is of the opinion that such services alone suffice for the protection of the public."

10. Other disposition includes a sentence other than sentence suspended, fine, incarceration, probation or community service.

11. Transferred is not a final disposition. This disposition occurs if a defendant requests and is granted a change of venue. Proceedings are then transferred to another judicial circuit.

12. Remanded cases are those where the defendants initially requested jury trial. The cases were referred back to the District Court for action and disposition.
