INTRODUCTION

The annual crime rate in Delaware has risen consecutively since 1983, and 1989 figures show the state continuing in that pattern. The number of crimes reported in Delaware in 1989 was 124,994, about an 11% increase from the 1988 total of 112,742.

The most significant increases can be attributed to Part II Crimes, which are heavily influenced by illicit drug offenses, and violent Part I Crimes. A look at the Violent Crimes incidents shows a steadily increasing number of rapes (11% increase since 1988), that is much higher than the national increase of 1%, as well as a jump in the number of aggravated assaults from 1,706 in 1988 to 2233 in 1989. This 24% increase is believed to be connected to the relationship between aggravated assault and illicit drug activity. There has been a 48% increase in the number of drug arrests since 1988, a result no doubt of the law enforcement crackdown on illicit drugs. Cocaine arrests are the major source of this increase.

This report covers the overall statewide data for 1989, breaking it into three sections: violent crimes, property crimes, and illicit drugs. The three sections follow and introductory sections, and new this year is the illicit drugs section. Each section begins with a brief summary, followed by supporting indexes of information. Rounding out the report are breakdowns of crime complaints and clearances by jurisdiction, and an index of law enforcement officers killed or assaulted in 1989.

The Statistical Analysis Center relies on the accurate crime information of all Delaware law enforcement agencies, as provided through the State Bureau of Identification of the Delaware State Police.

VIOLENT CRIME SUMMARY

Violent crimes include homicide, rape, robbery, and aggravated assault. In 1989, violent crimes increased by 769 offenses to 3,773, an increase of 25.6 percent compared to 1988. Violent crimes are adult centered.

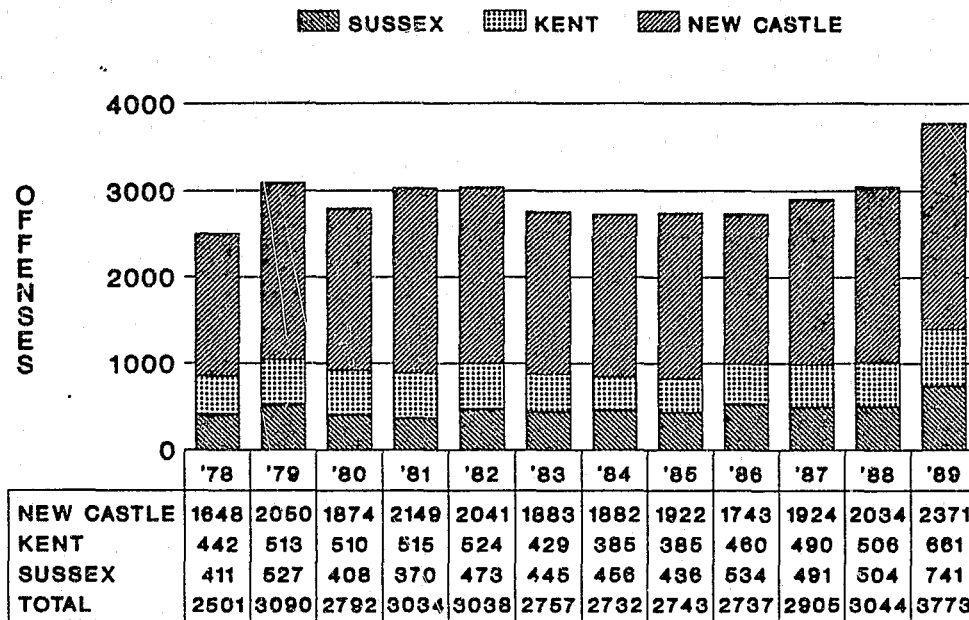

HOMICIDE, including negligent manslaughter, increased by 1 offense to 36. Authorities cleared 82.4 percent of the homicides. Four of those arrested were juveniles; 41.2 percent of the victims were related to the offender.

RAPE increased by 56 offenses to 571; or 15.1 percent of all violent crimes. Authorities cleared 70.4 percent of the complaints. Adults were 85.5 percent of those arrested; juveniles were 63.8 percent of the victims. This is far greater than the juvenile percent of victims for all other index crimes. In 69.3 percent of the offenses, the offender was known by the victim.

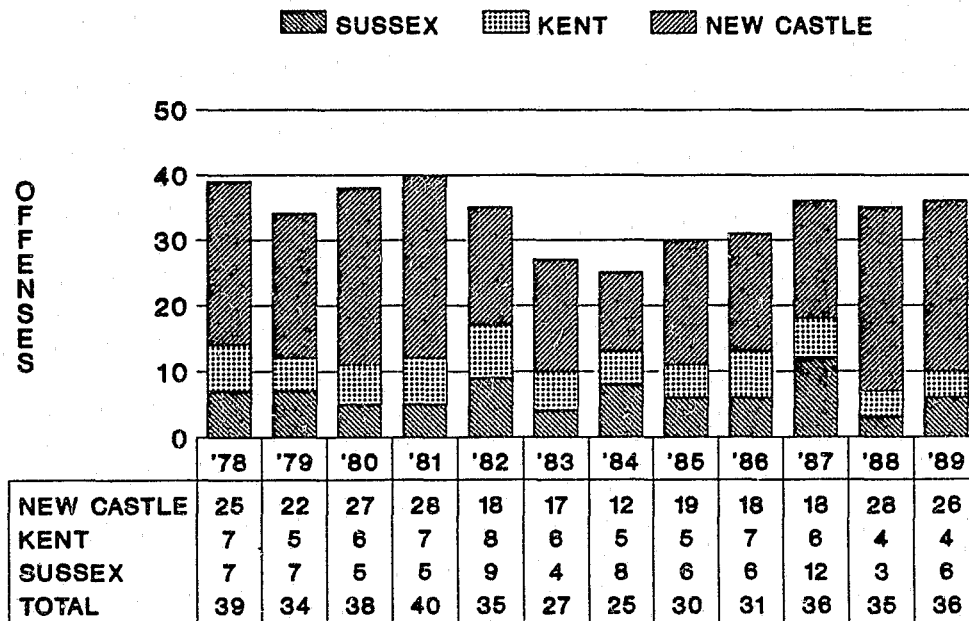

ROBBERY increased by 145 to 933 offenses. The majority of offenses occurred in outdoor locations (highways, streets, and alleys). Firearms were used in 21.5 percent of the offenses. The value of property stolen increased from $279,581 to $487,248. Authorities cleared 32.5 percent of the robbery complaints. This is the lowest clearance rate of all violent crimes.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT increased by 527 offenses since last year, from 1,706 to 2,233 offenses. Primarily an adult crime, 82.4 percent of the victims and 86.9 percent of those arrested were adults. Authorities cleared 72.8 percent of the complaints.

ARSON offenses decreased by 127 to 291. Property damage cost, however, remained stable at $2.8 million. Authorities cleared 20.6 percent of the complaints.

ILLICIT DRUGS

In total, illicit drug arrests in Delaware increased by 48.0 percent between 1988 and 1989. Adults are much more likely than juveniles to be arrested for the possession or trafficking of an illicit drug. In 1989, 87.7 percent of the illicit drug arrests were adult. Adult illicit drug arrests increased from 1,344 in 1988 to 1,934 in 1989 -- a 43.9 percent increase. However striking that may be, it is noteworthy that drug arrests for juveniles have increased by 81.6 percent in 1989. 1986 was the low point for juvenile illicit drug arrests at 137. By 1989, the number had more than doubled to 296.

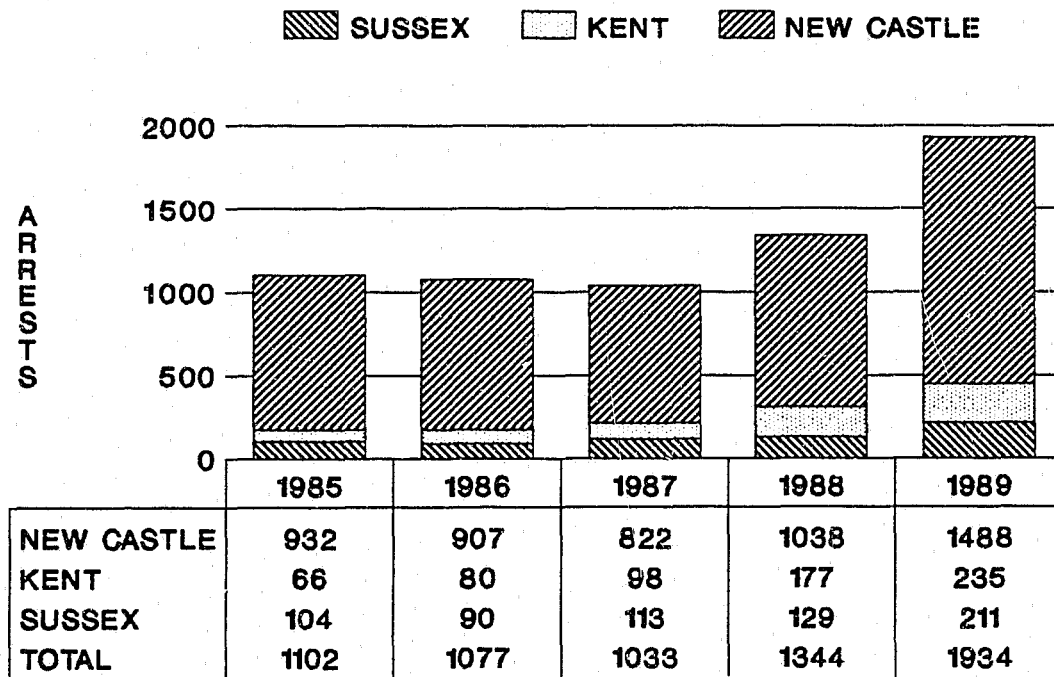

The increase in drug arrests is most likely related to the increase in law enforcement manpower dedicated to illicit drug behavior. Most drug related arrests are based on proactive investigations by the police as very few offenses are reported by citizens. For most other crimes the police activity is initiated through a report of a criminal incident.

Cocaine related arrests were the driving force for the increase of both the adult and the juvenile illicit drug arrests. In 1987, there were more adult marijuana related arrests than cocaine arrests -- 567 versus 418. In 1989, the number of adult cocaine arrests was double that of the marijuana arrests -- 1,297 versus 625. Juvenile cocaine arrests have increased significantly over the past three years, from 19 in 1987 to 74 in 1988, and to 167 in 1989.
