Report on Arrests and Incarcerations for Driving Under the Influence North Dakota, 1990

Prepared by

Judith H. Volk
Research Analyst

December 1991

Data concerning the number and nature of the crimes committed in the state of North Dakota is collected through the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. This is a voluntary program involving county sheriff's offices and many city law enforcement agencies. In 1990, participating agencies submitted data using either summary reporting or incident-based reporting. Summary reporting is a tally system of reporting the number of index offenses and arrests occurring each month. The incident-based system involves use of a standard incident form to collect data on each incident reported to the agency. This method collects more detailed information than is collected by the summary system.

ARRESTS

Table I on page 2 presents the DUI arrest totals for the period 1978-1990. DUI arrests increased 4.8 percent from 4,124 in 1989 to 4,322 in 1990. This is the first increase in total DUI arrests since 1982. The arrest totals shown should not be interpreted as the number of individuals arrested for the DUI offense since it is possible that some individuals may have been arrested for DUI on more than one occasion. The peak number of arrests occurred in 1982 with 9,238 arrests for DUI reported. DUI arrest totals for each year are presented graphically in Figure I.

Table II on the following page is a summary of DUI arrests by arresting agency for the thirteen-year period from 1978 through 1990. This table also contains the average number of arrests for each agency during this period. The Highway Patrol has consistently made the largest number of arrests for DUI. In 1990, that agency made 1,260, or approximately 29 percent, of the 4,322 arrests.

* Due to computer problems at Cass County SO, data for adult arrests was not available for all of 1989 and the first six months of 1990. Estimates were made based on data reported in the previous 3 years.

Table III below is a breakdown of DUI arrests made by the North Dakota Highway Patrol in 1990. This information on county and month in which arrests were made was provided by the Highway Patrol. The total varies slightly from the total in Table II.

Table IV on page 5 presents the average number of DUI arrests and the rate of arrests per 10,000 population for each reporting jurisdiction.

DUI Arrests by Age and Sex

Table V below analyzes the DUI arrest totals by the sex of those arrested. An average of 86 percent of the arrests during this period were arrests of males.

Table VI on page 7 includes information on arrests by age category. Juveniles, persons under the age of eighteen, made up approximately 2 percent of the total. Table VII presents the number of arrests of persons under the legal drinking age. During the period 1983-1990, an average of approximately 15 percent of those arrested for DUI were under the age of 21. Those in ages 18-20 accounted for 84 percent of all DUI arrests of persons under 21 years of age in 1990.

Table VIII on page 8 presents a breakdown of arrests for DUI by age group and sex for the period 1983-1990. This table also contains adult and juvenile arrest totals for this offense each year. Table IX on page 9 contains information on adult and juvenile DUI arrests for each reporting agency.

While information on the total number of arrests made for DUI by Fargo PD and Grand Forks PD was available, breakdowns of age and sex of arrestees were not available and were estimated based on the previous 3 years' data.

DUI Incarcerations in Local Correctional Facilities

Each local correctional facility in the state of North Dakota records information on the individuals incarcerated in their facility. This data is reported to the North Dakota Jail Information System (NDJIS) which summarizes various characteristics of incarcerated persons, the reasons for incarceration, lengths of incarceration, legal status at the time of intake, and means of release. NDJIS currently does not receive incarceration data from jail facilities on the state's Indian reservations. Data from the NDJIS does not include data from the State Industrial School, the Missouri River Correctional Center, the State Penitentiary, or any other state institution. The incarceration totals should not be interpreted as the number of individuals incarcerated for DUI offenses since it is possible that some individuals may have been incarcerated more than once in the same or in subsequent years for this offense.

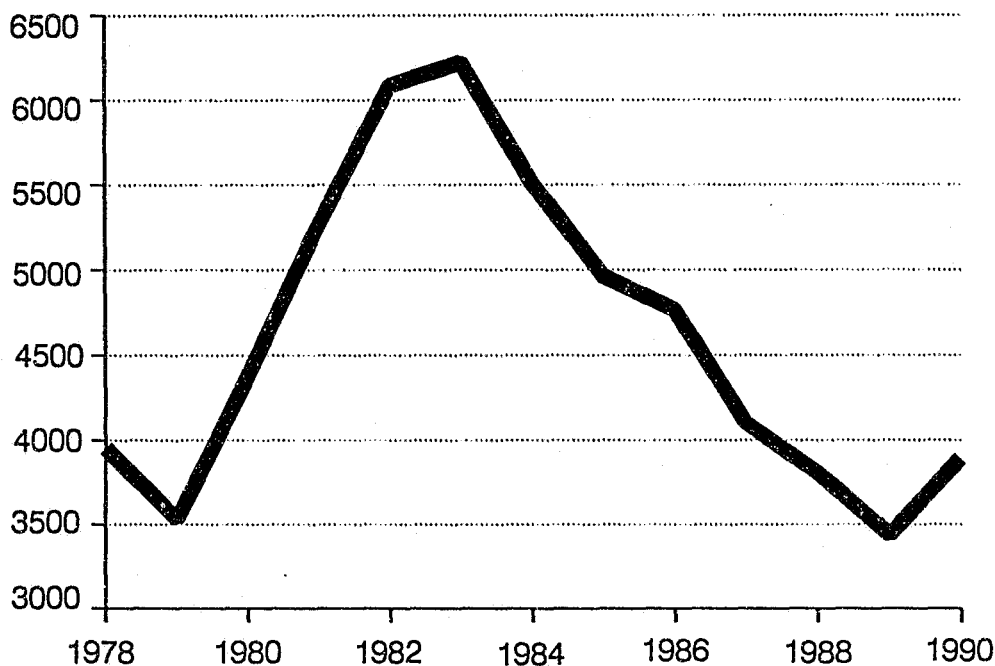

The total number of incarcerations for DUI offenses for the years 1978-1990 is shown in Table X. The number of incarcerations increased 13.2 percent from 3,436 in 1989 to 3,889 in 1990. The 1989 total is 1.6 percent lower than the total for 1978. The trend in incarcerations is presented in Figure II.

Figure II
DUI Incarceration Totals, 1978-1990

There were 18,671 incarcerations reported in 1990 for all offense categories. In 20.8 percent of those incarcerations, the reason recorded was DUI.

DUI Incarcerations by Age and Sex

Table XI on the next page presents incarcerations for DUI by age group and sex for each year from 1978 through 1990. This table also shows the totals for juveniles and adults incarcerated for this offense each year.

Table XII on page 13 provides a breakdown of incarcerations by sex of those incarcerated. The incarcerations are primarily male, although the percentage of females incarcerated for this offense has increased.

A breakdown of incarcerations by age category is given in Table XIII. The incarcerations are primarily of adults, with juvenile incarcerations currently less than one half of one percent. A "juvenile" is defined as an individual under the age of 18.
