ANNUAL REPORT — JANUARY-DECEMBER 1975

RUFUS L. EDMISTEN
Attorney General
State of North Carolina

FOREWORD

In recent years the people of our State rightfully have become apprehensive about increasing crime and violence. The evidence of the increase has been apparent to them. They have heard of crimes committed in their own neighborhoods and perhaps themselves have been victims. They have seen the television reports and read of the commission of crime after crime in their local newspapers. But due to a lack of truly reflective criminal statistics, neither members of the public nor criminal justice officials have been able to understand the nature of crime or the real level of criminal activity in North Carolina.

The Department of Justice felt that we no longer could rely upon guesswork, sporadic reporting and sometimes even intuition to provide a picture of crime in this State. If we were to plan and develop more effective law enforcement services and improve the total criminal justice system, we simply had to know the kinds of crimes being committed, the rate of apprehension and the disposition of the cases.

Since 1973 a Statewide Uniform Crime Reporting Program has been operational in North Carolina. This program is administered by the Police Information Network, a division of the North Carolina Department of Justice, which has a functioning computer system and excellent rapport with the State's local law enforcement agencies.

With the program only three years old, we have attained a high degree of cooperation from local law enforcement officials. I am extremely pleased with the voluntary efforts made to sustain a sound Uniform Crime Reporting System. As a result, this annual report has been compiled and is, in my opinion, a testimonial to the progressive outlook of North Carolina law enforcement officials and their desire to achieve an even higher degree of professionalism.

We are proud to be among the 36 States operating a Statewide Uniform Crime Reporting Program. I have committed the Police Information Network to continuing its cooperative efforts with local law enforcement agencies and to continuing the development of the Uniform Crime Reporting Program thereby improving the processes of the Criminal Justice System in North Carolina.

RUFUS L. EDMISTEN
Attorney General

Law Enforcement Code of Ethics

As a Law Enforcement Officer, my fundamental duty is to serve mankind; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the Constitutional rights of all men to liberty, equality and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all; maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn, or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession . . . law enforcement.

UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING

Law Enforcement agencies throughout North Carolina have voluntarily submitted information on crimes committed in their areas of responsibility to the Police Information Network (PIN) since January, 1973. The information and statistics presented in this report is an assessment of the statewide crime problem and was compiled from the monthly Uniform Crime Reports (UCR) submitted to PIN by North Carolina Law Enforcement agencies for the year 1975.

It is appropriate that this annual report be dedicated to you, the public officials and law enforcement officers whose diligence, interest and cooperation has allowed for the successful operation of the North Carolina UCR Program. Only through your cooperation and efforts will the UCR program continue to be successful.

The accuracy and completeness of the information in this publication has been verified to the best of the ability of the reporting agencies and the staff of the Police Information Network.

THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

In the last several years the FBI has actively encouraged individual states to develop statewide programs of law enforcement statistics compatible with the national UCR program. These statistical programs have been given impetus by the development of statewide computerized criminal justice information systems, (PIN), of which Uniform Crime Reporting is an integral part.

North Carolina was one of the first states to develop its own statewide program of law enforcement statistics, the North Carolina Uniform Crime Reporting Program.

In January 1973, the Police Information Network, a division of the North Carolina Department of Justice, initially began the collection of monthly Uniform Crime reports from county and municipal law enforcement agencies.

This document is the third annual report, presenting statistical information collected and compiled through the year 1975.

FIELD REPRESENTATION

For Uniform Crime Reporting purposes the Police Information Network divides the State into eight (8) districts. Eight PIN Field Representatives are assigned to assist local agencies in many areas including record practices and crime reporting procedures. The difficult and important task of maintaining close liaison is obvious when it is realized that services now are extended by PIN, through its Field Representatives, to 430 law enforcement agencies of the State. Education of contributors to the program must be a constant operational requirement, if continued system adherence and valid statistics are to be expected.

As an adjunct to the program the Police Information Network offers internal records keeping system assistance to those agencies who request it. Assistance is rendered by the Field Representative who provides the necessary guidance and instruction. The personal contact of the Field Representative and the contributor not only serves as a rapid means to resolve areas of report error, but also provides the Field Representative the opportunity to work in other areas with which the Police Information Network is concerned.

CONTRIBUTING AGENCIES AND POPULATION

There are currently an average of 351 law enforcement agencies throughout the State contributing monthly directly to the North Carolina Uniform Crime Reporting Program. Each month approximately 88 out of 100 county Sheriff's Departments and 259 out of 330 Police Departments participate.

In addition, State law enforcement agencies (North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation (SBI), North Carolina State Highway Patrol (SHP), North Carolina State Government Security Force (SGSF)), and several Campus Police Departments submit data to the program. Uniform Crime reports received from these agencies represent statistical data covering approximately 91.53 percent of the estimated North Carolina population.

The above table sets forth the number of agencies by type that have participated in the North Carolina Uniform Crime Reporting Program through December 1975. The State Highway Patrol and State Bureau of Investigation are each counted as one agency even though: A) a monthly report is received from the State Highway Patrol reflecting activity in each county and B) a monthly report is received from each Special Agent of the State Bureau of Investigation.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

In the statewide Uniform Crime Reporting Program contributing law enforcement agencies are wholly responsible for compiling their own crime reports and submitting them to the Police Information Network. The Police Information Network in an effort to maintain quality and uniformity in the data received furnishes full-time field representatives who provide training in Uniform Crime Reporting procedures. All contributors also are furnished with the Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook which outlines in detail procedures for scoring and classifying offenses. The Handbook illustrates and discusses the monthly and annual reporting forms as well as the numerous tally sheets made available to facilitate the periodic tabulation of desired data.

A centralized record system is necessary to the sound operation of any law enforcement agency. The record system is an essential basis for crime reporting by the agency. Upon request the Police Information Network makes internal records forms and technical assistance available at no cost to any law enforcement agency. This provides for the establishment or modification of a basic non-automated police records system.

On a monthly basis, law enforcement agencies (police, sheriffs, Highway Patrol, and State Bureau of Investigation) report the number of offenses that became known to them during the month in the following crime categories: murder and non-negligent manslaughter, manslaughter by negligence, forcible rape, robbery, assault, burglary, larceny, and motor vehicle theft. This count is taken from a record of all complaints of crime received by the law enforcement agency from victims, other sources, and/or discovered by officers. Whenever complaints of crime are determined through investigation to be unfounded or false, they are eliminated from the actual count. The number of "actual offenses known" in these crime categories is reported to PIN without regard to 1) whether anyone is arrested for the crime; 2) stolen property recovered; 3) the local prosecutive policy; or, 4) any other restrictive consideration. Law enforcement agencies on a monthly basis report the total number of these reported crimes which they clear either by arrest or exceptional means. A separate count of crimes cleared which involve only persons under the age of 18 is shown. The number of law enforcement officers killed and assaulted and the value of property stolen and recovered during the month are reported. Arrests are reported for all criminal acts, except traffic violations, by crime category including the age, sex, and race of each person arrested. Supplementary information concerning pertinent data surrounding homicides is reported.

On an annual basis a report is submitted by each contributor concerning the number of persons formally charged by crime classification and the disposition of such charges. Law enforcement employee data specifically encompasses the number of sworn and other personnel and is collected annually.

VERIFICATION PROCEDURES

An obvious concern in the collection of crime statistics is the validity and uniformity of the data received. With the receipt of monthly reports covering approximately 350 jurisdictions, prepared on a voluntary basis, the problems of attaining uniformity are readily apparent. Issuance of instructions does not complete the role of the Police Information Network. On the contrary, it is standard operating procedure to examine each incoming report not only for arithmetical accuracy but also, and possibly of even more importance, for reasonableness as a possible indication of errors.

Numerous checks and cross checks are used to insure the accuracy of the reports. Errors of a minor nature are corrected by the UCR report verifiers without contacting the contributor. Necessary arithmetical adjustments or unusual variations are noted by the UCR verifiers and brought to the attention of the submitting agency by direct contact through a PIN field representative. Upon resubmission to PIN of a corrected return from a field representative, the forms are re-verified. Upon completion of all individual form verification processes summary statistics in various forms are derived.

A great deal of the success of North Carolina's UCR Program to this point has largely been due to the full time field staff assigned to assist local agencies in record practices and crime reporting procedures. Personal contact is invaluable to the accuracy and uniformity of UCR data received.

STATISTICAL FEEDBACK

A particularly important aim of North Carolina's UCR Program is statistical "Feedback" to contributors. Data will be analyzed and returned to the contributor on a statewide level with the annual report. The contributors will then possess detailed information showing crime trends within their jurisdiction, comparisons with departments of similar size, comparisons with departments whose jurisdictions represent a similar population density, etc. In addition to a published report, statistical information will be made available in the form of periodic trend releases. The Police Information Network is planning the further automation of UCR with the intention of providing regular monthly statistical reports to contributors. This will provide for timely response to statistical requests.

Data collected will be forwarded by the Police Information Network to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a monthly and annual basis. This is for inclusion in national crime reports.

LIMITATIONS OF A UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

Information currently collected by the North Carolina Program is generally the same as that gathered by the national system, and the methods of classifying and scoring offenses and arrests are the same. This readily enables comparisons with other states and the Nation, but the information gaps present in the national program are also inherent in North Carolina's system.

Development of the current nationwide Uniform Crime Reporting Program began more than forty years ago. In 1930, crime counts were first requested from local police departments, with the Federal Bureau of Investigation designated by Congress to collect, compile, and analyze these statistics. The Committee on Uniform Crime Records of the International Association of Chiefs of Police played a primary role in the origin and development of the UCR Program and, to this day, serves in a strong advisory capacity. Standardized offense classifications and scoring procedures to insure uniformity and consistency of data are the keynote of the reports. All of the Uniform Crime Reports have been designed so that they are a by-product of information that a law enforcement agency should routinely compile for its own efficient administration and performance. The underlying philosophy and focus is and always has been oriented toward police statistics for use by law enforcement agencies, but the unique nature of the program makes the data invaluable for use by elected officials and the American public.

The Uniform Crime Reporting Program has been subject to much criticism during its history and, while many of these commentaries have been valid, at least some of the shortcomings are understandable when it is remembered that the program has been developed to furnish management information for use primarily by law enforcement agencies. The Uniform Crime Reports are not a court or corrections statistical program. They are not designed to furnish an overview of the workings of our entire criminal justice system, nor are they able to give the complete picture of law enforcement activity. The main goal of the UCR Program is to furnish police administrators with a measure of their activities and operational problems as indicated by the number of reported offenses, arrests, clearances, and the like.

Therefore, much of the criticism of the UCR Program itself is weakened when its stated primary purpose is kept in mind. Uniform Crime Reports data are the best crime information currently available since they reflect the key events (criminal offenses) that set in motion the various phases of our criminal justice process. The number of arrests, prosecutions, or convictions, while capable of more precise measurement, nevertheless is less indicative of the amount and nature of crime because such data is further removed from the original event. But, because the Uniform Crime Reporting Program is the only recurring crime and arrest reporting program operating on a national level, of necessity it serves as the base for assessing the many significant information gaps at the input end of the criminal justice system.

A first step in the control of crime is to ascertain the true dimensions of the problem. However, present statistics as gathered by the UCR Program measure neither the real incidence of crime nor the full amount of economic loss to victims. Information regarding number of offenses and clearances is collected only for the seven Part I crimes. Value and type of property stolen and recovered data is requested only for property stolen in Part I offenses. For the Part II offenses (except non-aggravated assault), the only information submitted is the number of arrests for these

UCR SYSTEM FLOW

The North Carolina Police Information Network is pleased with the progress of the Uniform Crime Reporting Program to this point notwithstanding the fact that there are many challenges yet to be met. The UCR staff is working vigorously toward achieving a program of excellence in terms of the quality of data submitted; the population coverage represented, the jurisdiction coverage represented, and the value of meaningful statistical feedback and interpretation. To this end the UCR program is committed.

NORTH CAROLINA CRIME INDEX OFFENSES

ESSE QUAM VIDERI

THE INDEX OF CRIME

The crime index offense table can be used to indicate the probable extent, fluctuation, and distribution of crime for the State of North Carolina as a whole, geographic divisions, individual counties, individual cities and towns, and standard metropolitan statistical areas. The measure used is a Crime Index consisting of seven important offenses which are counted as they become known to the law enforcement agencies. Crime classifications used in the Index are: Murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary—breaking and entering, larceny and motor vehicle theft.

The total number of criminal acts that occur is unknown, but those that are reported to Law Enforcement provide the first means of a count. Not all crimes come readily to the attention of Law Enforcement; not all crimes are of sufficient importance to be significant in an index; and not all important crimes occur with enough regularity to be meaningful in an index. With these considerations in mind, the crimes below were selected as a group to furnish an abbreviated and convenient measure of the crime problem.

UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING INDEX OFFENSE DEFINITIONS

1. Murder — The willful killing of another.
2. Rape — The carnal knowledge of a female through the use of force or the threat of force.
3. Robbery — Occurs in the presence of the victim to obtain property or a thing of value from a person by use of force or threat of force.
4. Aggravated Assault — An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe bodily injury.
5. Burglary — The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or theft, even though no force was used to gain entry.
6. Larceny — The unlawful taking or stealing of property or articles of value without the use of force, violence or fraud.
7. Motor Vehicle Theft — The unlawful taking or stealing of a motor vehicle, including attempts.

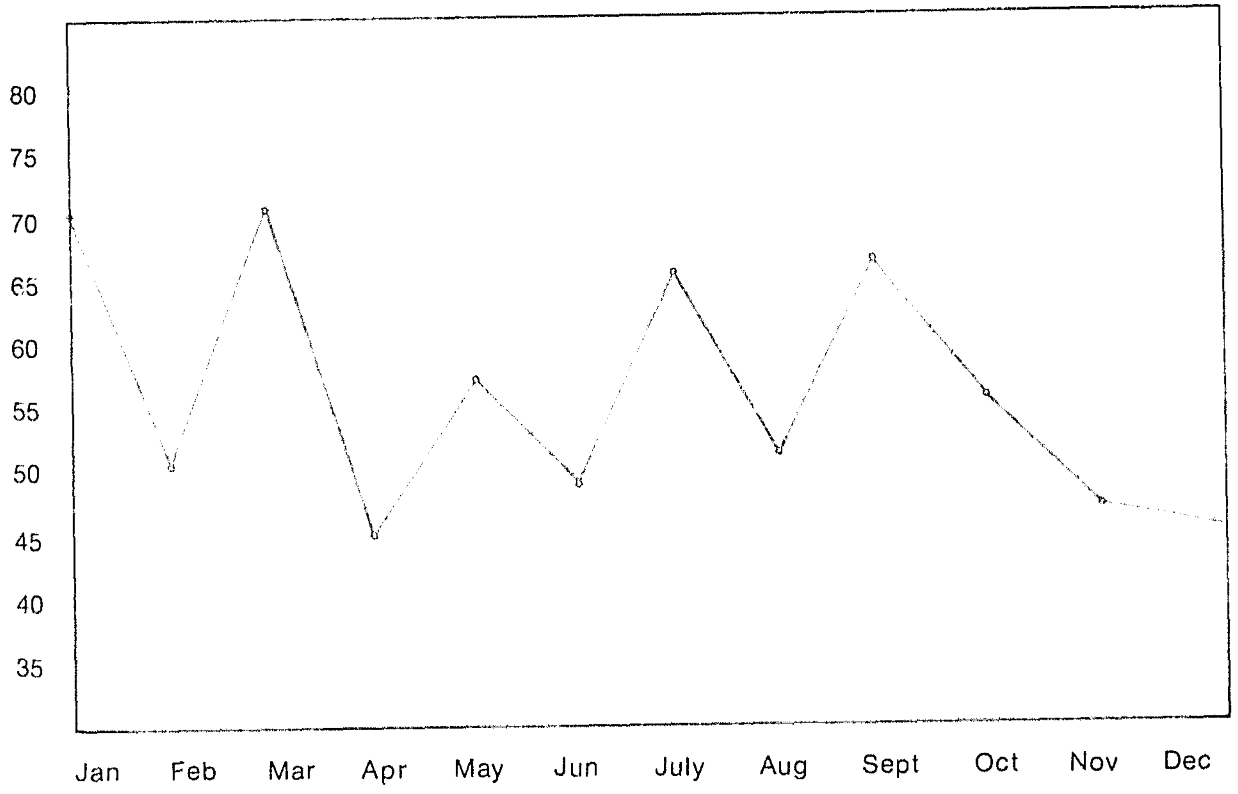
MURDER

MURDER



The Crime Index offense of murder is defined as the willful killing of another. The classification in this offense, as in all other Crime Index offenses, is based solely on police investigation as opposed to the determination of a court, medical examiner, coroner, jury, or other judicial body.

In 1975, there were 633 murders reported in North Carolina. This figure represents an increase of 11.80% from last year's 593 reported offenses.

An analysis of murder by month in 1975, shows no particular season of the year that experienced the greatest frequency of occurrance.

Throughout the State, law enforcement agencies continue to be successful in clearing or solving by arrest a greater percentage of murders than any other Crime Index offense. In 1975, 88.92 percent of the murders were cleared.

MURDER

Murder is defined as the unlawful killing of a human being. Any death due to a fight, argument, quarrel, assault or commission of a crime is included. Traffic deaths, caused by the negligence of someone other than the victim are not included here but are counted under manslaughter. Attempts to kill and assaults to kill are scored as aggravated assaults and not as murder. Suicides, accidental deaths, and justifiable or excusable homicides are also excluded.

The law enforcement agencies which participate in Uniform Crime Reporting cooperate in providing additional information regarding homicide so that a more indepth analysis of this offense can be made. Through a supplemental reporting system, information is provided regarding the age, sex, and race of the victim; the weapon used in the murder; and the circumstances surrounding the offense. These tables reflect actual offenses as well as the victims of justifiable homicides.

As illustrated in the following table, the victims of murder during 1975 were male in approximately 8 out of 10 instances. Approximately 40 out of 100 murder victims were white, 57 were Negro, and 3.0 Indian. The largest number of murders occuring in any ten year age bracket was the 20 to 29 group which contained slightly more than 3 out of every ten murder victims.

The table below indicates by month the value of property reported stolen and recovered during 1975. The total value of property reported stolen in North Carolina in 1975 was $58,895,858.64. For classifying and scoring purposes the seven Crime Index offenses are grouped into two categories—crimes against persons and crimes against property. Crimes against persons include murder, rape and aggravated assault. Crime against property include robbery, burglary, larceny and motor vehicle theft. Supplemental data relating to these property crimes is collected and analyzed on a monthly basis. The resulting figures provide information concerning the value of property stolen and recovered, the various types of property stolen and recovered and the value of property stolen by offense category.

VALUE OF PROPERTY STOLEN AND RECOVERED

UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM SUMMARY

THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 20 1775
ESSE QUAM VIDERI

INDEX CRIME REPORTED BY MONTH

The measure used to indicate the probable extent, fluctuation, and distribution of crime for the State as a whole, geographic divisions, individual municipalities, standard metropolitan statistical areas, etc. is a Crime Index consisting of seven important offenses which are counted as they become known to the law enforcement agencies. Crime classification used in the Index are murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary-breaking and entering, larceny and motor vehicle theft.

The graph below illustrates the variation in the total number of index crimes reported monthly during 1974.

	Total	Violent	Property
January	18,065	1,953	16,112

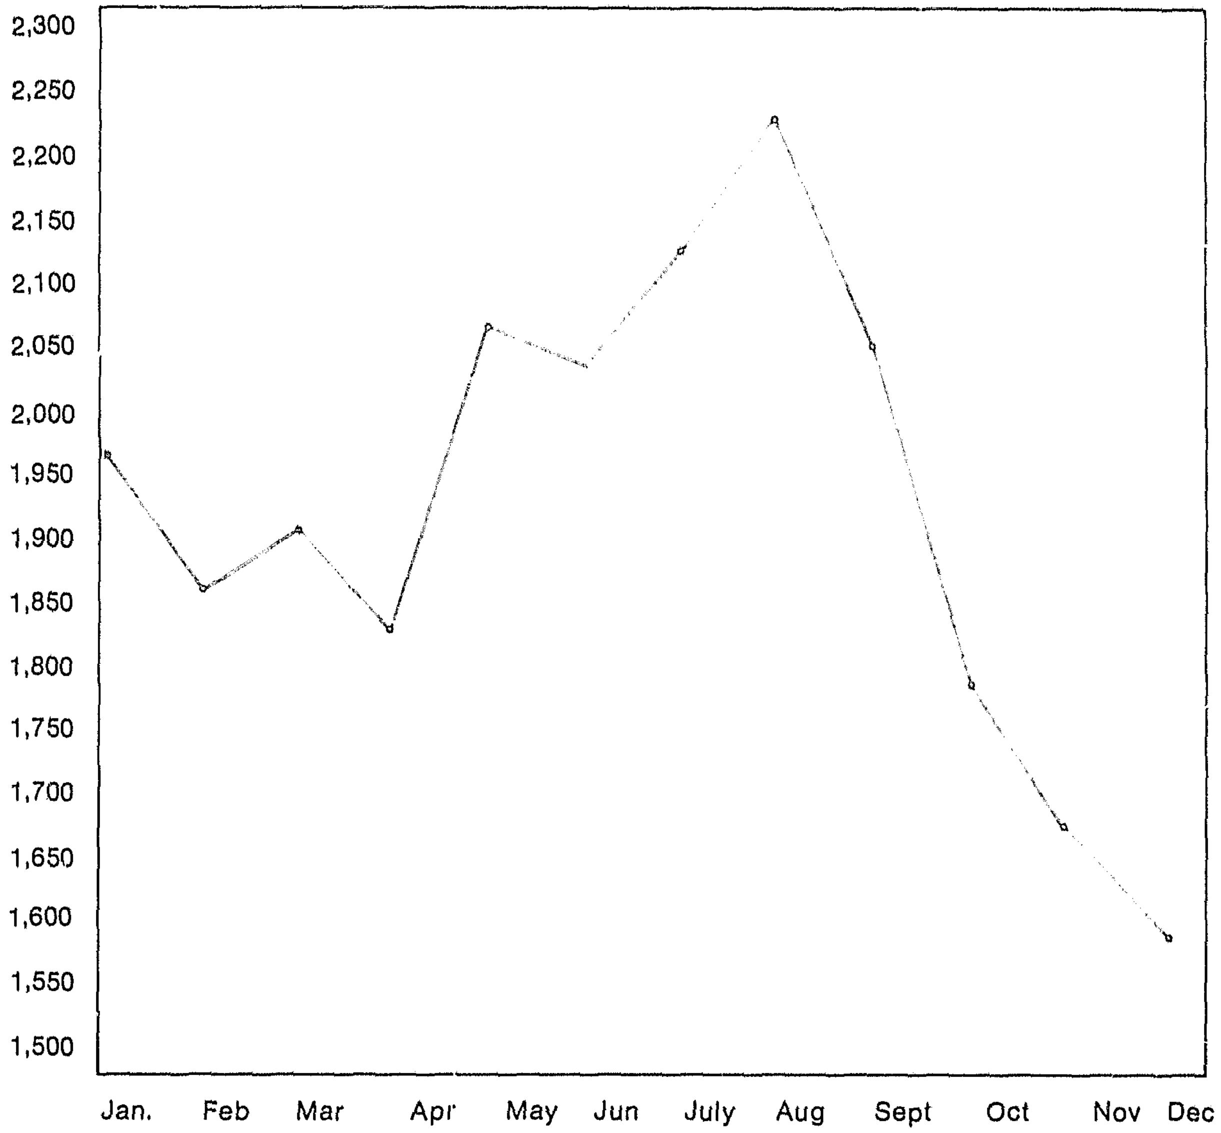
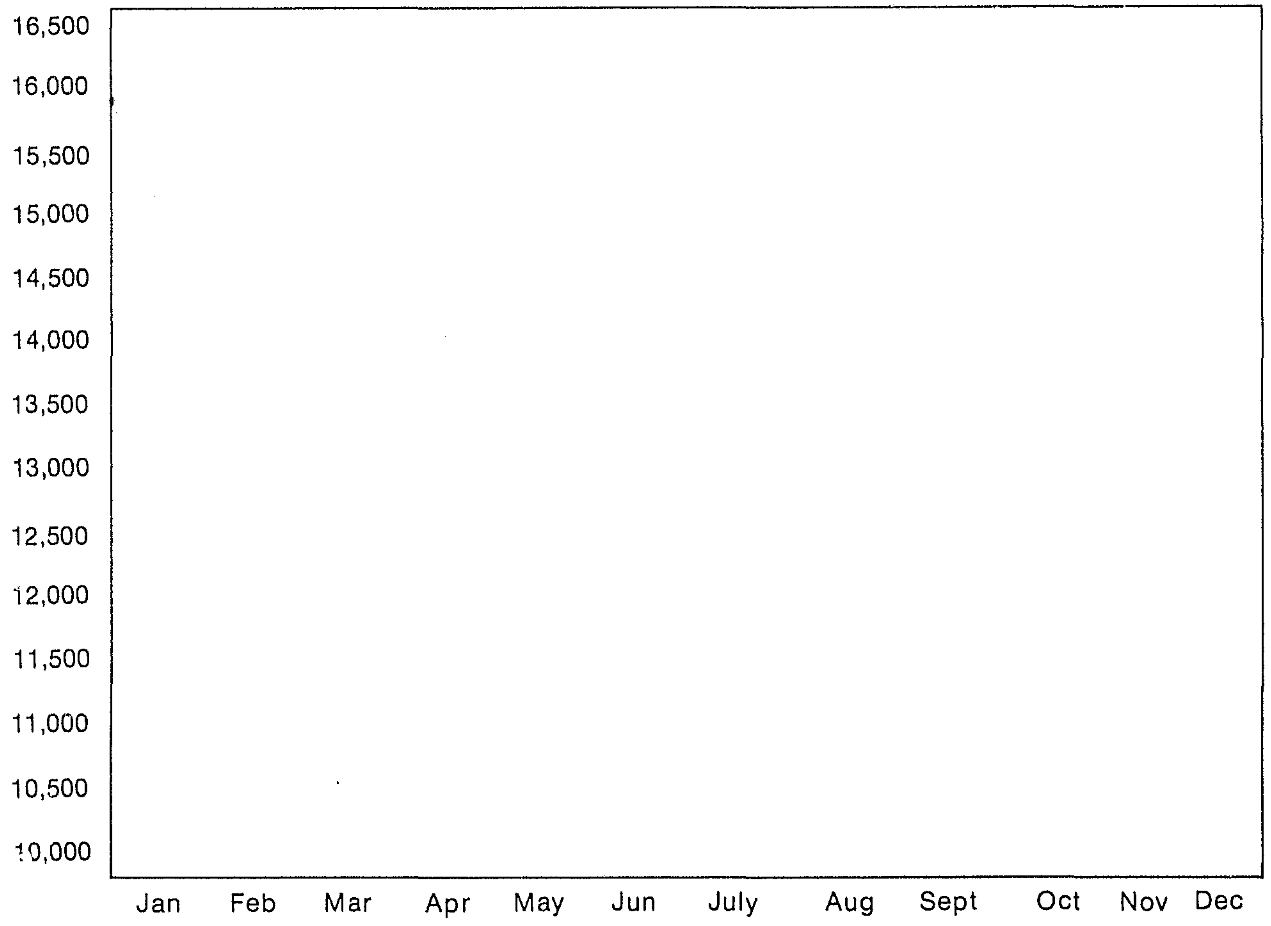
TOTAL	198,460	23,147	175,313

VIOLENT CRIME



Crimes of violence include murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault. Violent crimes involve the element of personal confrontation between perpetrator and victim and because of their very nature, are more serious than property crimes. These offenses for the year 1975 made up 12 percent of all reported index crimes.

PROPERTY CRIME



For Uniform Crime Reporting purposes, property crimes include the offenses of burglary-breaking and entering, larceny and motor vehicle theft. The number of property crimes reported for 1975 was more than seven times the number of violent crimes, amounting to 88 percent of all Index Crimes reported.

1975 Distribution and Clearance Rates For Index Offenses

The percentage of crimes cleared by arrest is obtainable by dividing the number of offenses cleared by the number of offenses known and multiplying the resultent by 100 as:

$$\frac{50 \text{ (robberies cleared)}}{153 \text{ (robberies known)}} \times 100 = 32.67 \text{ percent cleared.}$$

The table below sets forth the percentage of each index crime cleared by arrest during the calendar year 1975.

OFFENSE	NO. OF OFFENSES	PERCENT DISTRIBUTION	NUMBER CLEARED	PERCENT CLEARED

CRIME RATE CALCULATION

Uniform Crime Reporting provides law enforcement executives with a yardstick with which to measure local problems but to utilize this administrative tool, the local data must be converted into terms of rates and percentages.

Perhaps the most used of all crime statistics is the crime rate which generally refers to the number of offenses per 100,000 inhabitants. It can be calculated for any municipality regardless of the size and may be arrived at under either of two procedures. One formula would be to divide the number of crimes by the population and to multiply the answer by 100,000.

Another procedure used particularly when crime rates for a number of different offense classes are to be calculated, is the so-called reciprocal method. Assume that a city has 75,000 inhabitants and 127 robberies and 504 burglaries for the year. Divide 100,000 by the number of inhabitants in the city (75,000). The quotient may be considered the reciprocal and multiplied by the number of crimes in each class to obtain the rate per 100,000. The reciprocal in this instance would be 1.33333 and an illustration of the calculation of the crime rates follows:

Crime Class	No of Crimes		Reciprocal		Crimes 100,000
Robberies	127	X	1.33333	=	169.3
Burglaries	504	X	1.33333	=	672.0

The reciprocal once determined can be used to calculate all rates until a new population figure is available.

1975 NORTH CAROLINA INDEX OFFENSE CRIME RATES

INDEX OFFENSES	NUMBER OF OFFENSES	RATES PER 100,000 POPULATION
Murder	668	12.22
Rape	852	15,59
Robbery	4,413	80.76
Aggravated Assault	17,214	315.02
Burglary	65,964	1207.14
Larceny	99,830	1826.89
Motor Vehicle Theft	9,519	174.20
Violent Crime	23,147	423.59
Property Crime	175,313	3208.23
TOTAL	198,460	3631.82

The population figure used for crime rate calculation was 5,451,000, the 1975 estimate provided by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

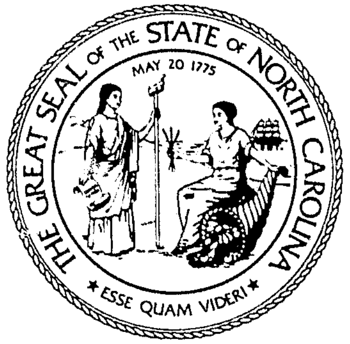
NORTH CAROLINA ARREST DATA



NORTH CAROLINA 1975 ARREST DATA

Arrest statistics reflecting characteristics of persons arrested by age, sex and race, are collected monthly from contributing law enforcement agencies. In examining these arrest figures it is important to remember that the figures do not personally identify individuals that were arrested during 1975, but a total number of persons arrested. One person may be arrested several times during one year for the same type or for different offenses. Each arrest would be counted. Furthermore arrest figures cannot be compared to offense figures because several persons could be arrested for the same offense, or the arrest of one person may solve several offenses. Arrests are primarily a measure of police activity as it relates to crime. Although law enforcement arrest policies vary, particularly with respect to juveniles, contributers to this program are instructed to count one arrest each time an individual is taken into custody for committing an offense. A juvenile is counted as a person arrested when he commits an offense and the circumstances are such that if the offender were an adult, an arrest would be made.

NORTH CAROLINA LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ASSAULTED

NORTH CAROLINA LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ASSAULTED

During 1975 one thousand four hundred eighty-nine (1,489) assaults on sworn officers were reported to the Uniform Crime Reporting Program. This reflected an increase of 7.7 percent over the one thousand three hundred eighty-three (1,383) assaults reported in 1974.

Activity at the Time of the Assault

As reflected in the following tables, an examination of the activities of law enforcement officers at the time of the assault discloses that the greatest number of assaults, 36.6 percent were in "attempting arrest" other than burglary or robbery. The second highest incidence activity, 20.4 percent of the assaults, was in responding to disturbance calls. Third in magnitude was involvement with traffic pursuits and stops, 12.6 percent.

CONTRIBUTOR HISTORY

Attempts at comparisons of summary crime figures contained in this report should not be made without first considering the history of contributor participation.

Each month, on the average, PIN received Uniform Crime Reports from 51 more agencies in 1974 than in 1973, and from one more agency in 1975. This positively affected the level of reported crime, particularly property crimes. The increase in the level of participation of small and medium sized agencies was great. These departments have a predominance of property crime activity. This is also reflected in the stabilization of some crimes in 1975.

STATEMENT OF POLICY
FOR THE RELEASE OF UCR STATISTICAL INFORMATION

The following regulations will be observed by this agency concerning the release of Uniform Crime Reporting statistical information. Employees of this agency will observe these procedures and will not deviate from this policy without the express consent of the Director of the Police Information Network. All information to be released will originate from the Police Information Network Criminal Justice Statistics Division and will be approved prior to being released by the Director of the Police Information Network.

REGULATIONS

1. This agency will publish an annual report reflecting crime in North Carolina. This report will be distributed to the Governor, to members of the Legislature, to the Attorney General, to law enforcement agencies or to any agency or committee dedicated to law enforcement or criminal justice work.
2. Published annual reports will be released to the above named agencies prior to their being released to individuals or agencies extraneous to the criminal justice community.
3. UCR Information Requests
   A. Information contained in the published annual report may be released via phone, letter, etc., to any interested party only with the written consent of the agency whose statistics are requested.
   B. All requests for unpublished information from agencies or individuals should be directed by letter to the Director of the Police Information Network. These special requests will be honored only upon the Director's authorization.
   No person or agency will be furnished statistical information which has not previously been published, concerning any individual agency's reports without the written consent of the Chief Administrator of that Agency. The Police Information Network will maintain for one year copy of the information released along with the request and the authority for release.
   C. Law enforcement agencies may receive interim, unpublished, specialized reports identifying their agency only providing the request is not unreasonable. Law Enforcement agencies may also receive their respective county totals along with state or district totals. All requests should be directed to the Director of the Police Information Network.
