

The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center is located in the Thomas J. Shanahan Library of Marymount Manhattan College, which is the Education Component of the Anti-Crime Through Organized Neighborhood Effort Program, ACT ONE.

This is the second bibliographic listing of the books, magazines, journals, newsletters, pamphlets, reports, article reprints, catalogs and audio-visual materials which are available to the community as part of the ACT ONE program.

As noted in the first bibliographic listing, meeting the diverse needs of neighborhood residents has been a prime consideration in the acquisition of materials for the Center. For example, new books range from the popular Helter Skelter, to the more academic The Ethics of Homicide, to the useful Fighting Back: How to Cope With the Medical, Emotional and Legal Consequences of Rape, to the textbook Criminal Violence: National Patterns and Behavior. Added to the growing selection of newsletters, magazines, and journals are: Clasp Blockbuilder, by the Citizen's Local Alliance for a Safer Philadelphia, Warstle, published by the Champaign County Chief, Crime and Delinquency Literature, The British Journal of Criminology, and The Criminologist.

The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center also contains a listing of related local organizations involved in crime prevention, victim and witness assistance, ex-offender job counseling, and the like. Other materials deal with Block Watching, Operation Identification, new ideas in preventing burglary, robbery, shoplifting, employee theft, juvenile delinquency, helping victims of crime, safety for the elderly, self-defense groups, and new ideas to stop drug traffic. Selected tape cassettes are also available.

The Crime Prevention Resource Center is truly a Community project and suggestions for additional materials are encouraged. The Crime Prevention Resource Center is open to the community during the regular hours of the Thomas J. Shanahan Library:

Monday and Wednesday	9:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Tuesday and Thursday	9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Sunday	12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

J.L. Barkas, Coordinator of the Community Crime Prevention Resource Center is available to assist the community on Tuesday and Friday from 3:00 p.m. until closing. During all other hours, the regular Library staff will be available for service.
