FOREWORD

We are pleased to provide a complimentary copy of this Supplement to the 1978 Bibliographic Guide for Prosecutors. On behalf of the Board of Regents, the National College of District Attorneys expresses its appreciation to Houston Endowment, Incorporated, which helped make possible the publication of this Bibliography. It is an example of the services provided by the College to prosecutors throughout the nation.

The College hopes it is filling a void in the criminal justice field by providing essential reference sources for current prosecution materials.

Special recognition is extended to those NCDCA staff members without whose hours of often tedious proofing, reading, and attending to countless details this publication would not exist. The College especially thanks research associates Melba Pourteau and Joan Ward for their dedication to this project.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this supplement to the 1978 Bibliographic Guide for Prosecutors is to increase the research aids available to the practicing prosecutor. The subjects reflect the broad range of needs and responsibilities of the average district attorney.

To facilitate easy reference, the bibliography is divided into two sections: publications and audio-visual materials.

The PUBLICATIONS SECTION lists books, manuals, and periodical articles of interest to the average district attorney. A listing of the publishers cited in this supplement can be found on page 27; periodical abbreviations used can be found on pages 28-29.

The AUDIO-VISUAL SECTION lists selected materials by subject, available for rental or purchase. A listing of distributors for audio-visual materials can be found on page 49.

Additional issues of the bibliography will be published periodically to keep it current.
