The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center is located in the Thomas J. Shanahan Library of Marymount Manhattan College which is the Education Component of the Anti-Crime Through Organized Neighborhood Effort Program, ACT ONE.

This is the initial bibliographic listing of the books, magazines, journals, newsletters, pamphlets, reports, article reprints, catalogs and audio-visual materials which are available to the community as part of the ACT ONE program.

The varied interests of neighborhood residents have been a constant consideration in evolving this collection in order to assure a wide range of offerings on many levels. For example, books range from the popular Mugging: You Can Protect Yourself to the more academic Citizen Involvement in Crime Prevention or the illustrated The Complete Book of Locks, Keys, Burglar and Smoke Alarms, and Other Security Devices to the provocative The Honest Politician's Guide to Crime Control. There are newsletters like Crime Control Digest or Security Letter and magazines like Changing Times and Voluntary Action or journals, such as Criminology and Crime & Delinquency.

The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center also contains a listing of related local organizations -- for crime prevention, victim and witness assistance, ex-offender job counseling, and other topics for easy reference in case further information is needed. Additional materials deal with Block Watching, Operation Identification, new ideas in preventing burglary, robbery, shoplifting, employee theft, juvenile delinquency, helping victims of crime, safety for the elderly, self-defense groups and new ideas to stop drug traffic. Selected films (16mm or video cassette) as well as tape cassettes are available.

This Crime Prevention Resource Center is truly a Community project and suggestions for additional materials are encouraged. The Crime Prevention Resource Center is open to the community during the regular hours of the Thomas J. Shanahan Library:

Monday and Wednesday	9:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Tuesday and Thursday	9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Sunday	12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Ms. J.L. Barkas, Coordinator of the Community Crime Prevention Resource Center, will be available to assist the community on Tuesday and Friday from 3:00 p.m. until closing. During all other hours regular Library staff will be available for service.
