ACQUISITIONS

NOTE TO OUR READERS:

In response to the many requests we receive for information on various types of sexual assault programs and available materials, the National Rape Information Clearinghouse (NRIC) of the National Center for the Prevention and Control of Rape (NCP CR) has prepared this resource list. This list is not intended to be evaluative nor is it an endorsement of any program or resource. Please note any restrictions regarding a specific audience to whom a particular item is available, and contact the specific program or source for current prices, ordering, etc.

- Section I - RAPE PROGRAMS lists printed materials on a variety of topics, including counseling procedures, training, medical procedures, police procedures, community education and self-defense.
- Section II - MEDICAL PROTOCOL lists printed materials developed by a variety of sources dealing with medical treatment of victims of sexual assault.
- Section III - CRIMINAL JUSTICE lists printed materials dealing with police, legal action, and legislation related to sexual assault.
- Section IV - ADDITIONAL MATERIALS includes descriptions or lists of materials available from a variety of sexual assault programs around the country.

PLEASE REQUEST MATERIALS DIRECTLY FROM THE PROGRAM OR SOURCE. We do not have copies available for distribution. For reprints of journal articles, you may wish to contact the author or publishing journal directly.

We would be pleased to receive any feedback from you on the usefulness of any materials you order or suggestions for additional resources which might be added to the list.

We extend our thanks to the many persons who have shared their knowledge and experience with us and are willing to share their resources with others.
