

The Office for Victims of Crime Tribal Financial Management Center (OVC TFMC) provides training, technical assistance, and resources to support American Indian and Alaska Native communities as they develop and maintain the capacity to successfully manage the financial aspects of their federal awards. A strong financial foundation will support each community's service to crime victims while enhancing the consistency and sustainability of tribal victim service programs.

OVC TFMC offers the following services and resources (at no cost) to those seeking OVC funding for the first time as well as OVC tribal grantees as they manage their programs and financial awards:

- 🕒 Support grantees' financial/programmatic staff in the financial management and reporting requirements of their OVC award
- 🕒 Individualized financial training and technical assistance
- 🕒 Financial needs assessments
- 🕒 Dissemination of best practices and peer sharing through regional training sessions and interactive webinars
- 🕒 Clearinghouse consisting of current, relevant, and effective tools and materials plus promising new practices in financial and grants management
- 🕒 Help grantees understand necessary requirements to select appropriate financial management tools, software or programs
- 🕒 Answer grantees' questions regarding the Budget Detail Worksheet (BDW)

Important Reminder

- ✔ Financial and programmatic points of contact for all award recipients are required to complete the Department of Justice Grants Financial Management Training (<https://ojp.gov/training/fmts.htm>).

Requests for technical assistance, resources and general questions are accepted through the Virtual Support Center (VSC) at 703.462.6900 or TFMC@OVCTFMC.org. For additional information about OVC TFMC please contact Stanley Holder, Project Director at Stanley.Holder@OVCTFMC.org
